COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1955. 141st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, MAY 2, 1955. No. 39.

SENATE

MONDAY, May 2, 1955.

The Senate met at 2:30 o'clock, p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JOHN B. WILLIAMS, Pastor of Second Baptist Church, Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, humility is a mark of great character and we would attain to this desired virtue if it be within Thy will to teach us. We cannot expect to master our petty shortcomings and small vices, that stand in the way of moral and spiritual progress, until we have accepted Thy teachings according to this, desired virtue. Help us to underestimate, rather than to overestimate, our ratings of ourselves, so we may have opportunity to profit by our mistakes and our shortcomings.

We seek to be of real service to Thy Kingdom and we may be so no matter what capacity we choose to fill. We have received our talents at Thy hand, and we pray Thee for guidance and help to use them and increase them in Thy service rather than to hide them and return at the end of our service with no accounting to offer.

We love Thy presence, we praise Thy presence, we humbly ask that Thou would lead us in Thy great love and we seek to be near thee all the days of our lives. Watch over us and giude us, in Jesus' name, Amen.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, a short time ago this Senate rejected a bill that would have given Pennsylvania citizens the right to decide whether or not they wanted legalized pari mutuel racing in Pennsylvania.

Significantly, Mr. President, the race track at Camden opened yesterday—I mean, on Saturday—and I have the headline here from the sports page of the Philadelphia Bulletin of last Sunday. It reads, and I quote:

"41,799 See Heliscope Set Garden State Record."

A part of the story—and I am not going to read it all—states, and I quote:

"The old opening-day attendance mark was 35,412—turnout at the 1954 inaugural.

"The fans wagered $2,971,048 to set another opening-day record. The previous first day's high was $2,537,947 wagered last May 1 at the 14-year-old track.

"All roads"—and this has to do with the huge crowd that was there—"leading to the track were jammed with cars bumper to bumper. The grandstand was half filled at noon."

Mr. President, that is an indication that people want pari mutuel racing. I was not at the track myself, although I would have liked to have been there, but I did talk to some people who were at the track. I asked them about the number of Pennsylvania cars that, in their opinion, were parked in the huge lots at the track. They told me that, in their opinion, at least seventy-five or eighty per cent of the cars at that track last Saturday were Pennsylvania cars.

Mr. President, since that is true and, in my opinion for practical purposes, I consider the race track at Camden, because it is so close to Philadelphia and to Pennsylvania, to be in Pennsylvania because it is primarily supported by Pennsylvania citizens. The only difference is in the amount bet. Pennsylvania did not get one penny. The State Government of New Jersey realized a profit from it. The race track owners in New Jersey realized a profit from it. The business people in New Jersey realized a profit from it. Of the 41,000 fans who went to the track, I am sure they bought gasoline, food and drink, and they bought other necessities while they were in the State of New Jersey. Probably many of them went on to Atlantic City and spent the week end there.

Mr. President, about the only people who realized a profit in Pennsylvania were the racketeers and the bookies that took bets on the races here in this State, because the race tracks are not located here. I think we should do something about that. If we want to be lily-white and we do not want to permit horse racing in Pennsylvania, then I say again, as I said at the last Session, we should do something about the racketeer and the bookie who are reaping the harvest while the Commonwealth gets nothing in revenue.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. YOSKO read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 364, entitled:

An Act making it unlawful to print or otherwise produce wall charts, tip sheets, scratch sheets, bookmaking tickets or other items, in furtherance of illegal gambling or to transport, sell or possess the same; and providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Law and Order.

Messrs. DiSILVESTRO and CHAPMAN read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 365, entitled:

An Act regulating the sale and possession of certain dangerous drugs in the interest of public health and imposing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 366, entitled:

An Act amending the act of July 11, 1917 (P. L. 758), entitled "An act for the protection of the public health by regulating the possession, control, dealing in, giving away, delivery, dispensing, administering, prescribing, and use of certain drugs, and keeping records thereof; by regulating the use of drugs in the treatment of the drug habit; by providing for the revocation and suspension of licenses of physicians, dentists, veterinarians, pharmacists, druggists, and registered nurses for certain causes, and by providing for the enforcement of this act, and penalties," correcting the spelling of the word "cocoa" to "coca" and providing for oral prescriptions in certain cases and regulating their use.

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. DiSilvestro, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, when the referendum was before the Senate, it was voted down and I took the vote by the Members of the Senate in the proper spirit.

However, Mr. President, things have developed since then which I had foreseen, and many of the Members of the Senate knew might arise. At Bowie, someone approached me and if you would ask me his name, I would not be able to tell you his name. However, if I would see him I would recognize him. He said to me that $50,000 was spent to kill the bill.

Mr. President, I was one of the horse racing fans who carried the Pennsylvania license tag, PA 1, to Camden to attend the races and, incidentally, I won. Someone approached me at the Garden State Race Track and told me that $75,000 was spent.

Mr. President, for the record, for the public, and for the integrity of the Members of the Senate, because each and every Member that I know is straight and honest and, as far as I can tell, I know they are all right, I say from the housetop that I dare anyone, since this infamous propaganda has been going around—and that is the kind of propaganda that does go around—that if my bill seemed like a pinch bill, I have nothing to do with it. I dare anyone to point his finger at me, regarding the sums of money that have been stated by these two individuals.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. SILVERT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, we in Philadelphia are proud of a young lady. She is the daughter of John B. Kelly, and her name is Grace Kelly.

Mr. President, John B. Kelly was a former Secretary of Revenue for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Today, he says that he is best known as Grace Kelly's father.

Mr. President, on March 30 of this year, Grace Kelly won the Academy Award for the best motion picture performance in "Country Girl." I should like to take the time of this Senate for another minute or two while I read into the record a short editorial, written in the Philadelphia Inquirer, on April 1, 1955, headed:

"An Oscar for Grace."

"The John B. Kelly household in East Falls is used to champions. It also knows how to accept defeats gracefully and triumphs modestly.

"But it must have been a thrill for all the Kellys when the time came on Wednesday night for the award of the Academy 'Oscar' for the top motion picture actress of the year and their lovely Grace appeared on the television screen to receive it.

"In that happy moment, Philadelphians claim a share. They have become accustomed to successive laurels heaped on several generations of Kellys in the theater and in sports—right up to John B.'s eight-year-old granddaughter who won a junior ice-skating championship at Hershey a week ago. But the winning of the Academy Award by their own Grace Kelly is an extra-special event.

"The young women was quick to say that she was 'very lucky' to gain the Oscar. But there is more to Grace Kelly's success story than good luck, or even good looks. There are such things as talent, and hard work, and perseverance—and natural good manners. They add up to perhaps the handsomest of all the champions in the Kelly family."

Mr. President, on behalf of Senator DiSilvestro, Senator Donolow, Senator Weiner and myself, I am offering this resolution.

SENATE RESOLUTION

EXTENDING CONGRATULATIONS TO MISS GRACE KELLY UPON RECEIVING ACADEMY AWARD AS THE OUTSTANDING MOTION PICTURE ACTRESS OF THE YEAR

Messrs. SILVERT, DiSILVESTRO, DONOLOW and WEINER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 2, 1955.

On March 30, 1955, Miss Grace Kelly, the daughter of John B. Kelly, Philadelphia, was named the best motion picture actress of the year, and presented with the coveted "Oscar" moviedoms highest award.

Miss Kelly, a beautiful, refined, and versatile young lady has in her brief acting career, reached the goal sought after by all actresses, but reached by so very few. With an eighteen month period this vivacious blue-eyed blonde appeared on the screen with six of Hollywood's top box office male stars and turned in an outstanding performance in each picture. By her impressive portrayal of the suffering and yet understanding and faithful wife of an alcoholic in "The Country Girl," Miss Kelly clinched the honor of being the year's best actress. In her triumph, Miss Kelly retained the graciousness and modesty which is always admirably shown by the Kellys in victory; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania extend to Grace Kelly its congratulations for this fine achievement, which is so well in keeping with the traditions of the Kelly family; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Miss Grace Kelly, Henry Avenue, Philadelphia.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. WHALLEY offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 2, 1955.

Resolved, (the House of Representatives concurring), That when the Senate adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, May 9, 1955, at two-thirty o'clock, p. m., E. S. D., and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, May 9, 1955, at a time to be fixed by the House of Representatives.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Barr,	Hays,	Seyler,	Weiner,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye," the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 107, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May two one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eight classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" authorizing the county commissioners to appropriate moneys to certain associations for repair and maintenance of property used for county fairs

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The act of May two one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) known as The General County Law is amended by adding after section 445 a new section to read

Section 445.1 County Fair Associations The county commissioners may appropriate annually out of current revenues to any incorporated nonprofit agriculture association or any nonprofit county fair association located within the county for the repair and maintenance of the real estate buildings and structures within the county used annually by the association for county agriculture fairs and exhibitions whether or not the real estate is owned by the county and leased to the association The total amount of any such appropriation shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5000) in any one year and where more than one such association is located in the county the amount appropriated may be divided among them in such proportions and amounts as the county commissioners may determine

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts are repealed in so far as they are inconsistent herewith

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I intend to vote against this bill and I would like to indicate my reason for so doing.

Mr. President, this bill in my opinion would open the way in the various counties toward putting the nonprofit County Fair Associations into county politics. It is my belief that there is no need for this bill. I believe in the main the County Fair Associations, at least the ones that I am familiar with in my part of the Commonwealth, are self-supporting. As a matter of fact, they are doing very well.

Mr. President, I believe that this bill would open the way toward making the County Fair Associations a political football. I think this is a state of affairs to be avoided. I think it might well be very detrimental to the County Fair Associations themselves in the long run and, certainly, keeping them out of politics seems to me to be a more important item than the possible grant of $5,000, in case the county commissioners so vote.

For those reasons, Mr. President, I intend to vote against this bill.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, in order to clarify the minds of the Members of the Senate in regard to this piece of legislation, all I see that this bill does is authorize the county commissioners to appropriate to a nonprofit Fair Board up to $5,000. As you probably know, there is now legislation on our State statute books which provides that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania can appropriate to each County Fair Board the sum of $1,000. In addition thereto, county commissioners now have the responsibility, and the authority, to underwrite any deficit of any County Fair Board operating within the jurisdiction and under the jurisdiction of the county commissioners.

So, Mr. President, all this legislation does is, it gives them the right, if they see fit, if you please, to appropriate up to $5,000. Frankly, I think it is good legislation and I am going to vote for it.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I am a little surprised that there has been a statement made here by a Member of this body that they want to keep the Fair Associations out of politics, as if being in politics were a disgrace or something wrong.

Mr. President, I have always advocated in my county, in nearly every speech I make I tell my audience that they should get into politics, everyone of them. I tell them that if they will get into politics a month or two before every election, and work up a change in their every day lives, meet their neighbors, their new neighbors and their old neighbors, it will be good for their health. Likewise, it will be good for the health of these Fair Associations the more they get into politics.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I want to make two things clear which seem to be obscure at the moment. One is that I am heartily in favor of the nonprofit County Fair Associations. I think they do a wonderful job, and I believe it is for their own good that they should stay out of county politics.

Now, Mr. President, as far as being in politics is concerned, I hasten to assure my distinguished colleague from Allegheny County that I think it is a very honorable profession and I think as many individual persons as possible in this Commonwealth should be interested in politics. However, I do not think that a nonprofit corporation, operating a county fair, should interest itself in becoming an adjunct to the patronage list of the commissioners in the county.

For that reason, Mr. President, I am still intending to vote against the bill.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, after hearing the preceding speaker's remarks, I might add that if we are going to do that we better start amending some other legislation, because under the present law today county commissioners have the authority to underwrite deficits by County Fair Board Associations which operate under the jurisdiction of the county commissioners.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

Our Father God as we invoke Thy blessing upon us, give unto us the assurance of Thy very Presence in this Assembly. In all the deliberations that these Representatives participate in this session this afternoon may they ever be reminded that the most important thing is that what they do is acceptable unto God. We are quite certain that if Thou wilt accept what we do it will be just and right with our fellow men, though it may not always meet with popular approval or satisfy special interest or those who have the financial means to speak louder than those who are of more modest circumstances. Guide, we pray, that they may evaluate all legislation in the light of Thy acceptance.

Give us all the courage and discipline to abstain from all evil customs and to submit unto all just authority and all those who have the rule over us.

Look with divine favor on all these Thy servants. Watch over their loved ones while they are away from home. Prosper all their goings and grant that the end of this day shall find them at peace with Thee, their fellow-men and themselves. That they shall all find rest and restoration of strength in this night of sleep.

We beseech Thee to hear us in the name of Jesus, our Lord and our God. Amen.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection. The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. BANKER. Having presented an argument in favor of this amendment last Tuesday, I am not going to go into it extensively except to give a resume to those who were not present as to what this amendment does.

It brings the employes of the institutions, state mental, correctional and penal, under the Act. It provides that any of these employes, if injured while on active duty, would be taken care of from this standpoint, they would receive all medical care, they would not be subject to losing their vacation leave—I am a little mixed here for a second—they are taken care of throughout with everything paid.

As it exists right now, they are taken care of by what compensation is given under our unemployment compensation Act for their injuries. I would ask the Members of the House to support this bill, it is a good bill, it is humane and it provides protection for people who are working at a moderate salary and who need it.

Mr. Speaker, I ask for a slow roll call.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, we debated this matter at quite some length last Tuesday and in view of the fact that much of this material was covered at that time, I shall make my remarks as brief as possible today.

I am rising to oppose the amendments offered by the gentleman for the same reason I stated last week. His amendments would add an untold number of persons who would be entitled to the benefits provided under this law and which under this bill would be extended to the State Police force. I pointed out at that time that there probably would be hundreds of employes of the state of Pennsylvania working in mental institutions or penal institutions as clerks, and so forth, who have no contact with any dangerous situation or undue hazards. We know that policemen, firemen and state policemen have, and that is one of the reasons why they have medical and other benefits under the law which do not extend to other state employes.

I would like to point out once again that if we accept these amendments and put this particular class of persons under this benefit law, then we should go the whole way and put all of our state employes under a similar law. I see no reason to distinguish between the persons covered by Mr. Banker's amendments and other state employes.

If I may point out one homely case, it would be that of an employe of the Department of Property and Supplies. Frequently they have to get up to a high altitude to paint a ceiling, or fix a light, or do something of that kind, and certainly their occupation is just as hazardous and dangerous as a typist in a penal institution or a mental institution.

I think what we should do is defeat these amendments today and let Mr. Banker, or somebody else, put in a separate bill dealing with this group of people and then consider it at length.

I asked the gentleman from Huntingdon last week if he had any figures on how many people would be involved. He did not have them then and I do not think he has them now, because I have not heard him speak of any numbers. I have no idea how much it would cost the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and, as much as we would like to help some poor employe who gets hurt, and so forth, we should not get sentimental about it. We should find out first how much it is going to cost, how many people it covers, and whether it is right to extend that coverage to them when you do not extend it to the other thousands of state employes.

I ask that you vote against these amendments.

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Readinger says it will add many additional employes, and naturally it will. Nevertheless, these people are all traveling in danger, and he speaks of the danger to state police or other officers. A man working in an institution, any one of these institutions, is not in danger now and then he is in danger every minute of every hour he is on duty. He has to be on guard at all times, and not only that his brother officer is always watching him as well as himself. They can be attacked at any moment. I would say their duty is far more dangerous than our state police or any others.

He asks for facts on what the cost may be. I have no facts on what the cost may be if the state police are included, and I certainly am for them.

I might say that if the amendment happens to fall, I hope everyone will still vote for the bill.

I cannot understand his argument. The number of people in our institutions seems to me to be beside the point, on because it resolves itself to asking whether or not these men are occupying positions that are hazardous, and they are, definitely.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BANKER and Mr. READINGER.

NOT VOTING—2

Hamilton, W. H.,	Lafore,

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

SOROPTIMIST CLUB MEMBERS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the Hall of the House The Soroptimist Club of Harrisburg, Dauphin County, who are here under the supervision of their President, Miss Helen Manahan. They are the guests of the gentlemen from Dauphin, Messrs. Ziegler and Ogilvie.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair notes the presence in the House of former Member, Hon. Edward M. Flynn, of Sullivan County.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to call to the attention of the Chief Clerk the matter of whether it is possible to arrange for a Members' conference room. Do we have a Members' conference room in the rear of the House? The Chair refers to a conference room where Members who are called from the floor can consult with their friends and may retire for the conference. The Chair positively will not continue to tolerate the practice of calling Members from the floor for a conference back of the rail. If it is necessary to proceed severely in this matter, the Chair will require all visitors who cannot be seated to retire to the gallery. That is a Rule of the House. There should be a room where Members who are called from the floor can retire for a conference with the visitor, but this House is not a conference room.

NAYS—2

Banker, Vaughan,

NOT VOTING—2

Hamilton, W. H., Lafore,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 135, Printer's No. 25

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 155, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 21, 1943 (P. L. 571) entitled as amended "An act relating to assessment for taxation in counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for county, borough, town, township, school, except in cities and county institution district purposes; and providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation thereof for such purposes creating in each such county a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; defining the powers and duties of such boards; providing for the acceptance of this act by duties; regulating the office of ward, borough, town and township assessors; abolishing the office of assistant triennial assessor in townships of the first class; providing for the appointment of a chief assessor, assistant assessors and other employes; providing for their compensation payable by such counties; prescribing certain duties of and certain fees to be collected by the recorder of deeds and municipal officers who issue building permits; imposing duties on taxables making improvements on land and grantees of land; prescribing penalties; and eliminating the triennial assessment," extending the time for the establishment of a uniform permanent records system in each county and providing for the enforcement of the provisions of the act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 306), page 3, line 1, by inserting after "years]" except in counties of the eighth class.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 306), page 3, line 1, by inserting after "1958" and in counties of the eighth class not later than January 1, 1960.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 306), page 4, line 5, by striking out "AND" and inserting in lieu thereof any.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. DAVIS. The amendments I have just offered would extend the new tax assessment outlined for 8th class counties to January, 1960. Eighth class counties, low in population and limited to low taxing potentialities, are marginal operators when it comes to availability of funds with which to undertake projects such as installing an assessment system, projects which involve woefully large initial outlays of moneys, and in the cases of some 8th class counties, the 1958 deadline would work a hardship. Even the 1959 deadline of the original burden of the act would fall short of bringing full relief.

As for my own constituency of Forest County, we face a situation, without my amendment, of compeling urgency, stalled before a roadblock of fiscal facts. To go on to this new tax assessment project, our County Commissioners must raise a fund estimated to be far out of line with any short term tax or borrowing plan. Now, due primarily to the loss of certain revenues in 1953 and 1954 which may be corrected by a bill now before a Committee of this House, Forest County ended the year of 1954, thousands of dollars in the red. Therefore, it would seem to logically follow that our County Commissioners need time to adjust the county fiscal picture to the demands of this new assessment project. They need maneuver room in terms of time in which to bring the county's accounts to a recording in black ink, as well as to set up a long term financing program which will enable them to proceed with a bona-fide and reasonably placed advance toward effectuating the new assessment system.

January 1960 appears to be an obtainable target date. Lastly, Mr. Speaker, since my own County of Forest faces perhaps the most desperate outlook of any of the other 8th class counties, if my amendment be not adopted, I feel that a further word of exposition is in order. I believe that it is in order to insure that the need for my 1960 deadline amendment does not serve to generate superfiicial criticism as to the value and operational competency of 8th class counties as a class of the local components of this Commonwealth.

This amendment is needed most by Forest County because of conditions imposed beyond our borders at the time when much of Europe was being devastated by the ravages of World War II, a large acreage of Forest County was also being devastated by a different kind of turmoil. I refer to the construction of the Tionesta flood control dam where the bulldozer did, in a sense for some of our local countryside, what Hitler's Panzer divisions were then doing to the low countries. Forest County's casualties were the complete loss of three towns, a deep cut in our total population and the removal of thousands of acres as a source of taxation, for recent events have rendered these lands locally untaxable.

Now, Mr. Speaker, there has been no Marshall Plan for Forest County. As valiantly as we know how, we have been trying to remedy our own war-time begotten problems of devastation by our own efforts, and today we are asking for an extension until 1960 in which to put our fiscal house in order, including the adoption of a new and better assessment system because we are not equal to the ordinary responsibilities of a county. Not only are we making creditable and steady progress from a monumental setback not of our own making, but also I submit we have contributed and continue to contribute to the well being of all of the counties within the Allegheny watershed to the south of us, spread over the vast acreage of the Tionesta dam system. Over the devastated acres is that marginal head of captive floor waters which can mean the difference between security and appalling down river damage whenever the Allegheny goes on a rampage. Naturally, the people of Forest County are proud that we can be of some help in meeting the original problem.

I am sure I speak for my constituents, regardless of party, in saying that looking at the other face of the coin, we would be grateful for whatever consideration the Members of this House can see their way clear to give our case for 1960 extension. Of course the plights of each 8th class county is merely a question of degree, Forest County being quite possibly in the direst need of all. My amendment is conceived in the sense of assigning a handicap to a less than well-endowed player.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, it was rather difficult over on this side to hear the gentleman's remarks, but there was no question that he eloquently stated the reasons why 8th class counties should be taken out of the operation of this bill. However, I feel I must oppose the gentleman's amendments.

I noticed when the bill passed the Senate it passed unanimously, and I presume that somebody in the Senate is representing Forest County. However, 8th class counties were included when it passed the Senate, and I think they should remain in the bill.

The present bill in its amended form provides that this shall be done by January 1, 1958, and that if it is not started by January 1, 1957, the local municipal authorities or school districts can go into court to compel compliance.

Now, I do not know how long we will be in this session. Perhaps we will run into 1956, but, at least, we will have a session in 1957, and if the conditions described by the gentleman are as bad as they are at the present time we can, if necessary, give them a further extension during the 1957 session.

If we keep extending this burden, or this obligation, which the Commonwealth saw fit to impose by legislation back in 1952, or whenever it was, we will never get it done.

I suggest we defeat the amendments, leave all the counties in this so they know what their obligation is and the deadline on it, and, if the county represented by the gentleman needs further relief, we can give it to them in the 1957 session. We should not do it now. This is a job that should be done, and, even though it is rather a hardship on some counties, they should make every effort to get it done. If they cannot and they come back in 1957 with good reasons, we will consider them then.

I ask you to vote against these amendments.

Mr. FLINT. Mr. Speaker, I have listened to the remarks of the gentleman from Forest with great interest. I can appreciate the validity, the persuasive quality of his argument, namely, the relative poverty of small 8th class counties. I can appreciate it more, representing as I do an 8th class county which has the highest incidence of public assistance case load per capita in Pennsylvania. Nevertheless, I feel that part of the remedy for the low yield of public revenues can be effected by this bill. I would urge defeat of the amendments.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to rise in defense of my good neighbor, Forest County. While we are talking about the relief that might be granted in 1957 to Forest County, I am wondering about the relief of the number of counties that are getting relief from this bill this session. This work was to be done by January 1, 1956, and a great number of the counties did not do it. They were not all 8th class counties that did not, either. I come from an 8th class county and we have our system installed. If it is fair for us to extend the system to the other counties who did not see fit to do it, I say to you that it is more than fair that we extend it to a county such as Forest County, which is in that deliemma.

I for one am going to support these amendments, and I feel the Members of this House, who do not understand the conditions of Forest County, should take the word of the Representative from that county. We ought to support his contention.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I was the gentleman who introduced the amendments to Senate Bill 155 last week to place it in the condition that we have it today on the calendar.

I rise in defense of the bill as it exists today on the calendar here in the House. As you are well aware, this bill specifically allows all counties, including Forest, the right to go into the program which must be done by law and they have until the specified period to do that work.

The provisions that were put in the amendments were put there specifically to grant the right to the different districts to bring some of these counties into court so that this particular law would be complied with. I deeply sympathize with the Honorable gentleman from Forest County, and I understand the situation. But assuming that the situation is the same as the Majority Leader has outlined in a previous speech here, I am sure that this House and its Members will be kind enough to extend the provisions of that law.

In all fairness to the entire Commonwealth, I sincerely urge and recommend that you consider very carefully the condition that we are trying to correct here, because basically this applies not only to 8th class counties. I sincerely hope that you will defeat these amendments and pass the bill in its present form.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

On a rising vote, eighty-two Members, having voted in the affirmative and ninety-two in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the third reading postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTIONS

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 51

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up House Resolution No. 51.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 29, 1955.

The Delaware Upper Mount Bethel Bridge built in 1890 as a railroad bridge was purchased by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1932 at a cost of Two Hundred Seventy-five Thousand ($275,000.00) Dollars and established as a free highway bridge Since that time the bridge has been heavily traveled and in 1952 over two million vehicles made use of it

The Delaware Upper Mount Bethel Bridge an east-west roadway 733½ feet long supported by five through truss spans is still strong and capable of rendering many more years of service

The Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission recently constructed two new bridges and in order to finance this construction a $29,500,000 bond issue was floated with all of the toll bridges pledged as security It was agreed that the Delaware Upper Mount Bethel Bridge would be closed and demolished in order to remove competition from the new bridges

To demolish this bridge is a great economic waste to our Commonwealth Many residents of the area and particularly farmers are being deprived of a reasonable means of egress to nearby communities and markets Furthermore the Delaware Upper Mount Bethel Bridge is a facility which would be of invaluable usefulness in case of a national emergency therefore be it

Resolved That the House of Representatives sincerely request the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission to reconsider its action in closing the bridge and permit the Delaware Upper Mount Bethel Bridge to remain intact

And Be It Further Resolved That a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

RESOLUTION RECOMMITTED

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this resolution be recommitted to the Committee on Rules for further consideration.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 42

Mr. DOUGHERTY. Mr. Speaker, I call up House Resolution No. 42.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 14, 1955.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is planning to construct an expressway between Front and Second Streets extending from Girard Avenue to Packer Avenue in the City of Philadelphia

The construction of the expressway according to this plan will necessitate the demolition of old family homes which are the pride of the City of Philadelphia

Thousands of Philadelphians will be rendered homeless by the destruction of these dwellings and in moving from this area may leave the City of Philadelphia which would result in an economic loss to the community

The proposed plan will cost thousands of dollars in property damages which will have to be borne by the taxpayers of this Commonwealth

The construction and erection of the expressway will result in a "Chinese Wall" which is objectionable The City of Philadelphia has exerted pressure for the removal of the "Chinese Wall" on Market Street between Fifteenth and Nineteenth Streets for many years and it was finally removed in the past year

The erection of the expressway will also result in the isolation of thousands of persons living and working between Front Street and the Delaware River

Delaware Avenue in the City of Philadelphia is a very wide street being a minimum of one hundred fifty feet wide and in some areas two hundred fifteen feet wide

Delaware Avenue because of its width can easily be used as a "Skyway"

The erection of a skyway on Delaware Avenue could be accomplished at a tremendous saving to the taxpayers and all the objections resulting from the erection and construction of the expressway between Front and Second Streets would be eliminated therefore be it

Rsolved That the State Highway Department in conjunction with the City of Philadelphia erect a skyway along Delaware Avenue from Girard to Packer Avenue in lieu of an expressway between Front and Second Streets and be it further

Resolved That copies of this resolution be sent to the Governor of this Commonwealth the Secretary of Highways Joseph S Clark Mayor of Philadelphia the City Planning Commission James Tate President of City Council and Victor Moore Councilman

Mr. YOUNG. Mr. Speaker, I call up House Resolution No. 52.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 29, 1955.

It has always been necessary for the proper functioning of the General Assembly that bills resolutions calendars journals and other legislative documents papers and pamphlets be speedily printed and distributed in such manner that a sufficient number of copies thereof shall at all times be available for the use of the General Assembly its officers and members and agencies of the State government

No survey of legislative printing and the distribution thereof has been made for a considerable period during which many changes in the agencies and functions of the State government have taken place and the cost of the printing has increased many times its former cost therefore be it

Resolved That the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint a committee of three House members to investigate the costs of legislative printing the prevalence of errors therein the allocation and distribution of printed legislative documents pamphlets and papers and all other matters pertaining to all printing necessary for the conduct of legislation

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I call up House Resolution No. 55.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 29, 1955.

Whereas Under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code it is permissible to amortize more rapidly certain expenditures made for emergency facilities and

COMMITTEE MEETING

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I have called a meeting of the House Appropriations Committee at 9:30 a. m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time, tomorrow, Tuesday. At that time the Committee will review the budget and start budget hearings. These hearings will be conducted by the Committee and will be open to the Press and interested parties. The first Department to be called will be the Department of Welfare at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow.

The announcement, Mr. Speaker, from the rostrum, by the Clerk will show that the meeting is to be held in rooms 245 and 246, the Appropriations Offices.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I rise for the purpose of clarifying, if it is necessary, the program for this week. The Minority Leader saw me earlier today and indicated that there was some question about our program for the week. It is the same as announced several weeks ago. We propose, starting today, to go into three-day sessions, with the exception of the session during the week of the Primary. So there will be no more consent calendar days. We hope to have Committee meetings on Wednesday of this week and we hope to have enough Members here to vote on bills. And that we intend to be the program until we come to the day of final adjournment.

As announced before, during the week of May 16th we are not going to be here on the 16th or 17th, but we do intend to have a two-day session on Wednesday and Thursday of that week. But this week and every other week until plans are changed we expect and intend to operate on Wednesdays.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. TAYLOR asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

Mr. CIANFRANI asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

Mr. MURPHY asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. For the information of the Members, tomorrow we meet at 2:00 o'clock Standard, 3:00 o'clock Daylight Saving Time. We hope the Members will be here promptly. We have a heavy third reading calendar. We will start the third reading calendar with a roll call and during the third reading calendar we will have sufficient roll calls to be always in a position to determine whether or not there is a quorum within the Hall of the House. If at any time we find that there is not a quorum in the Hall of the House, the Chair will ask the Majority Leader, the Minority Leader, the Majority Whip and the Minority Whip to come to the desk and confer as to further procedure.

The Chair requests the Majority Leader to bring in the amended Rule regarding additional sponsors. The Chair must recognize the members individually to get them in the record. It consumes time and we would like to have that Rule reported out.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, not so long ago we adopted a Rule of this House that the last day for the introduction of bills would be May 12th. I am wondering whether the Speaker would have the patience to wait until May 12th for the introduction of that resolution to limit the number of sponsors to six without special permission.

The SPEAKER. The Chair accepts the amendment and also the apology.

SENATE

TUESDAY, May 3, 1955.

The Senate met at 9:30 o'clock, a.m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JOHN B. WILLIAMS, Pastor of the Second Baptist Church, Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we turn to Thee away from the preoccupations of the past, following days of our morality, to rest our little lives in the great calm of Thine infinite truth. We are feeble, futile and fleeting. Thou hast all power, all wisdom, all time and the eternities. So in Thee we anchor our faith, and we would repose our wearing spirits in the contemplation of Thy limitless goodness.

In the perversity of our hearts, O God, we have so often forgotten our brethren and sought only our own comfort and advantages. Let Thy love come into our hearts that we may desire the visitation of Thy compassionate mercy on all men everywhere. May the tempted, the rebellious, the careless, the desperate be reclaimed and restrained from their errors and strengthened in honorable purpose by Thy hand of might and gentleness. May the sorrowing be comforted by Thy word of hope and promise; may the suffering endure patiently as sharing the agonies of Thy Son; may the dying be cheered by the vision of the unending day in Thy gracious Garden of Eternal Truth.

In the perplexities of a world rent with war and tortured by hatred, we turn to Thee Who art King of Kings and Lord of Lords. May out of the perils and tears and heartaches of this time, come the promotion of Thy will, the vindication of Thy law and the acceptance of Thy redeeming love among all nations, Amen.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DONOLOW asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, one of the most important accomplishments of this century has been the many discoveries of methods to prolong human life. Within the boundaries of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and within the boundaries of the District that I represent, is a medical center which has dedicated its very existence toward that goal.

Mr. President, the Jefferson Medical Center is recognized throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, throughout the various States of the United States and even maintains a respectable position in this world of ours. As you know, Mr. President, the Jefferson Medical College is the oldest medical college, training medical students, in the United States, having been established in 1825.

Mr. President, within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania today there are 14,888 Jefferson trained men who are administering to the sick. We have doctors in every county in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with the exception of three, who are Jefferson trained men.

Mr. President, in conclusion, I want to say that the new pavilion that was built at Jefferson recently by public funds and loans and contributions from trustees, staffs and employees, is indeed an outstanding addition to this great medical institution of which we in Pennsylvania should be justly proud.

Therefore, Mr. President, on behalf of Senator Chapman, Senator Toole, Senator Silvert and myself, I am presenting this bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. DONOLOW, CHAPMAN, TOOLE and SILVERT read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 378, entitled:

SENATE RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE OF SENATE EXTENDED TO FAMILY OF THE LATE HONORABLE FREDERICK T. GELDER

Mr. MADIGAN offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 3, 1955.

The passing of the Honorable Frederick T. Gelder, former member and former President Pro Tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania, on Friday, April 29th, eleven weeks after his state career ended through dismissal from the Liquor Control Board by Governor Leader, after thirty-four years of public service certainly merits the oft quoted biblical saying "Well done good and faithful servant . . . . ."

Frederick T. Gelder was an influential force in the affairs of his home town, his county, his state and his nation. He was an inspirational leader in the Republican Party he loved so well. His life though quiet was a service of guidance and influence upon his fellowmen. He was a man of quality, a man of ability, a man of honesty and a man of loyalty, and his life of simple christianity served as an example for us all.

Frederick T. Gelder, born at Carbondale, June 4, 1874, the son of Frederick T. and Catherine (Blake) Gelder. He is married to the former Edith L. Brown and has a son and two daughters. He was twice elected Justice of the Peace, served as Postmaster during the Theodore Roosevelt and William H. Taft Administrations. He was a member of the General Assembly for 20 years, two terms as Representative of Susquehanna County and 16 years as State Senator from the 23rd Senatorial District. In January, 1939, he was elected President Pro Tempore of the State Senate. He served by appointment of Governors Brumbaugh, Sproul, Pinchot and Fisher on the Board of Trustees of the Farview State Hospital, much of the time as President of the Board. During the World War he was a member of the State Committee of Public Safety, local Food and Fuel Administrator and County Chairman of Four Minute Men. In 1939-40 he was a member of the General State Authority by virtue of his office as President Pro Tempore of the State Senate. In 1940 he was the Republican candidate for Auditor General. Mr. Gelder is a newspaper man. He acquired his newspaper training on the Carbondale Leader, leaving the city editorship of that paper to purchase the Forest City News in 1898. In 1929 he became publisher of the Carbondale Leader, retaining ownership until September, 1941. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association, the Masonic Fraternity and other organizations. Mr. Gelder was appointed by Governor Arthur H. James as a member of the Liquor Control Board on December 9, 1940, and on August 5, 1941, was made Chairman of the Board. He was reappointed by Governor Edward Martin on January 14, 1944. He served as Chairman until his dismissal February 7, 1955.

Senator Gelder took his greatest pride in his family and was a devoted husband and father. As stated he married the former Edith L. Brown and had one son, Attorney Franklin G. Gelder, Scranton and two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Bryan, Champaign, Illinois, and Mrs. Charlotte Smock, Terre Haute, Indiana.

He was a member of the Trinity Episcopal Church in Carbondale, Pennsylvania.

RESOLVED, That the Senate give expression to the loss it has sustained by the death of our former member and former President Pro Tempore and to many of us a close and valued friend whose qualities of heart and mind brought prominence and respect and endeared him to all.

RESOLVED, That we extend to his family bereaved of his tender presence, our heartfelt sympathy and pray for them that consolation that can only come from Him, who doeth all things well, and we join with them in the satisfaction of the recollection and memory of his life work so useful and well done.

RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution duly engrossed and attested be forwarded to his family.

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1955.

On March 30, 1955, Miss Grace Kelly, a native Philadelphian, received the Motion Picture Academy Award as the best actress for her role in the "Country Girl."

Grace Kelly, daughter of John B. and Margaret Kelly, made her non-professional acting debut at the age of eleven years; she received a role on the Broadway stage and later appeared on television programs. Her disguished portrayals have brought a new maturity to the art of motion pictures, and her exemplary conduct has elevated the acting profession. Probably no actress in Hollywood ever began a film career as auspiciously as Grace Kelly and reached the pinnacle of success in so short a time.

This young Philadelphian climaxed the year by winning the Academy Award nomination and an award from members of the International Press as the outstanding actress of the year, and within two months her photograph appeared on the covers of "Life," "Look" and "News Week" magazines, and stories have been written about her in the "Saturday Evening Post" and other national periodicals.

Miss Kelly, by her devotion to her distinguished family, to her religion and to her home city, has brought honor and credit to the City of Philadelphia, therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives extend to Grace Kelly congratulations for winning the Motion Picture Academy Award as the best and outstanding motion picture actress of the year, and hereby express fondest hopes for continued success in her chosen acting career, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to Miss Grace Kelly and to her father, John B. Kelly, in recognation of her achievements.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

RESOLUTION NO. 56

CONTESTED ELECTION ON LUZERNE COUNTY

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I call up House resolution No. 56, Printer's No. 186, on page 14 of today's calendar, which is the report of the Committee on Elections and Apportionment in the contested election case of Harry Butler, contestant, and Stanley Meholchick, respondent, for the office of Representative from the second district of Luzerne County, and I move its adoption.

The Resolution and Report were read by the Clerk as follows:

In the matter of the contested election to the office of Representative to the General Assmbly from the Second Legislative District Luzerne County Pennsylvania

In the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Session of 1955

REPORT AND RESOLUTION OF THE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS AND APPORTIONMENT

To the Honorable Hiram G Andrews Speaker and the Honorable members of the House of Representatives

This matter comes before the House of Representatives on petition of Harry "Jerry" Butler contesting the election of Stanley Meholchick to the seat in the House of Representatives from the Second Legislative District of Luzerne County A petition on behalf of Mr Butler appealing the decision of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County on January 31 1955 which declared that Stanley Meholchick was entitled to election from the district for the term beginning 1955 and was duly filed with the House of Representatives on February 9 1955 in accordance with the election laws and rules of the House of Representatives and was referred to this Committee for action on February 14, 1955

On February 7 1955 pursuant to certification from the Secretary of the Commonwealth Mr. Meholchick took the oath of office as Representative from the Second Legislative District of Luzerne County and was seated without prejudice to the rights of Mr Butler to appeal

Although it is not disputed that the law imposes no restrictions on the Committee as to what evidence it shall hear and consider nor from what source it shall be obtained it was agreed by counsel for both parties and this Committee that the decision of the Committee would be based solely upon the record of the Luzerne County Court oral argument before the Committee and written briefs Such oral argument was heard and briefs were filed on March 14 1955

The jurisdiction of the House of Representatives to hear and determine this matter is clearly defined Article II Section 9 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania provides

"Each House . . . shall judge of the election and qualifications of its members"

It has been established without question by the Courts of the Commonwealth that this House is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members

"Every fact and every conclusion of law found by the Court and by the Committee may be disregarded by the House and its decision expressed by its vote as to which is entitled to the office is final and conclusive" In Re Contested Election of McNeill 111 Pa. 235 p 242

At the General Election on November 2 1954 Harry "Jerry" Butler was the Republican Candidate and Stanley Meholchick was the Democratic Candidate for the office of Representative in the General Assembly from the Second Legislative District of Luzerne County The official count of the Board of Elections of Luzerne County accredited Mr Butler with 8802 votes and Meholchick with 8796 votes or a majority for Mt Butler of 6 votes

On November 20 1954 Mr Meholchick instituted an election contest before the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County As a result of this contest twenty-three votes which were cast in the Borough of Warrior Run were determined by the Court to be illegal and invalid The Courts decision is reported in Vol 45 Luz Leg Reg Reports p 33 and in the Legislative Journal on February 7 1855 p 274

The sole question presented to this Committee by the record and by the arguments and briefs of counsel was the validity of the votes of these twenty-three persons from the Borough of Warrior Run

All twenty-three of these persons were assisted in voting by one Stanley Nadwodny the Tax Collector of Warrior Run Borough and an employee of the County Commissioners It is also undisputed that not one of the twenty-three were administered the oath by the Judge of Elections as required by the Election Code prior to being accompanied by Mr Nadwodny into the voting booth

One of the persons assisted was a former member of the Borough Council and at the time Borough Road Supervisor in which capacity he submitted written reports to Borough Council His original registration application showed an erasure in the box where need for assistance was indicated and he was marked as entitled to assistance on the grounds of illiteracy

Another person who received assistance was a man with the mental age of two years who could not talk read or write The records show that Mr Nadwodny procured his illegal registration on September 11 1954 He was illegally permitted to vote on November 2 1954 with the assistance of Mr Nadwodny

Another one of the twenty-three votes in question was cast by a man who was naturalized on January 18 1943 and required the services of an interpreter in the Luzerne County Court He stated that on election morning at 7:30 A M Mr Nadwodny came to his home and asked him to go and vote but he refused Shortly thereafter the Chief of Police arrested him and took him before the Justice of the Peace where in the presence of Mr Nadwodny he was told that he would get thirty days in jail unless he went and voted In view of this threat he went to the polls where he was assisted by Mr Nadwodny

Several of the twenty-three who gave as reasons for need of assistance "poor eyesight" did not require glasses in order to read

On twelve of the original registration records which were exhibited to the Committee there were obvious erasures in the place where the need for assistance was to be indicated Since these original registration records were solely within the custody and control of the County Registration Officials it would seem obvious that these erasures were the responsibility of the County Elections Board

From the facts presented to this Committee with respect to these individuals who were permitted to cast their ballots in the circumstances outlined above it would seem apparent that some reforms would be in order in the election processes in the Borough of Warrior Run and in the Registration Office of Luzerne County The exploitation of a mentally deficient individual the use of police authority to intimidate a prospective voter and the participation of Election Officials and all others concerned in the subterfuge of assistance of intelligent and literate individuals cannot be too strongly condemned

As the Court of Luzerne County stated

"It must be conceded that the cornerstone of honest elections is secrecy in voting A citizen voting in secret is a free man otherwise he is subject to pressure and perhaps control"

"One method by which this guarantee of freedom can be defeated is the device of illegal assistance"

As the Court also pointed out there is a specific duty imposed under the Election Laws not only upon the Judge of Elections to administer the oath to one seeking assistance but also upon the voter to receive this oath before allowing the face of the voting machine to be seen by another

"Any elector . . . who without having made the declaration under oath or affirmation required by section 1218 of this act . . . shall permit another to accompany him into the voting compartment . . . or who shall state falsely to any election officer that because of illiteracy he is unable to read the names on the ballot . . . or that by reason of physical disability he cannot . . . see or operate the voting machine without assistance . . . shall be guilty of a misdemeanor . . ." Act of June 3 1937 P L 1333 25 P S 3530 at p 645 646

Under all of the facts presented to this Committee it is clear that each of the twenty-three votes in question was cast in plain disregard of that duty and therefore should be invalidated Further there is no doubt that these votes were attempted to be cast for Mr Butler Whereupon it is the opinion of this Committee that the following Resoluion expressing the decision of the Committee be presented for the consideration of and adoption by the House of Representatives

Resolved That it is the decision of the Committee on Elections and Apportionment of the House of Representatives that the appeal of Harry "Jerry" Butler be denied and be it further

Resolved That Stanley Meholchick be declared the duly elected Representative in the General Assembly from the Second Legislative District of Luzerne County for the term beginning January 1955 and be it further

Resolved That the action of the House of Representatives on February 7 1955 in seating Stanley Meholchick be hereby confirmd.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. MEHOLCHICK. I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. MEHOLCHICK. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that I have a personal interest in this resolution, I wish to be recorded as "not voting."

The SPEAKER. The statement of the gentleman will be noted in the Journal, and with the consent of the House, the gentleman will be excused from voting.

The Chair hears no objection.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, we are about to consider House Resolution 56. This kind of action in the House is not common; nor is it uncommon.

I should like to review very briefly some of the facts in this case. In the election of November of 1954 Mr. Butler was the Republican candidate from the Second Legislative District of Luzerne County seeking a seat in the General Assembly; Mr. Meholchick was the Democratic candidate from the same district seeking a seat in the General Assembly.

When the voting was over and the votes counted, the winner was declared to be the gentleman from the Second Legislative District of Luzerne, Mr. Butler.

Mr. Meholchick then took an appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County. A number of witnesses were brought in. Those persons were sworn, testimony was taken, they were examined and cross examined, and by decision of that court a number of votes were declared to be illegal and cast aside. Then it followed that Mr. Meholchick was the winner.

Subsequent to that a petition was filed by the Contestant, Mr. Butler, in this House. The matter was then submitted to the Committee on Elections and Apportionment and the outcome was the resolution upon which we are going to vote.

I would like you to take into consideration several factors. The first is this: the courts of this Commonwealth are created, or have been created, by us, I mean the Legislature. They are creatures of the Legislature, they are ours. The court considered all of the testimony, it had the witnesses before it, who were sworn and who were examined and cross examined.

I want you to consider this, that under the Constitution, Article II, Section 9, each House, the Senate and the House of Representatives, shall judge the election and the qualifications of its Members. I also want you to consider this, that no matter what the Committee does and no matter what the court does, we may under the authority given to us in the Constitution throw it aside. It could be so ridiculous that if one contestant received 5,000 votes and the other contestant received 2, and the matter was brought before us, we could throw all of that out, regardless of what the court found, regardless of what your Committee on Elections and Apportionments found, and we could say, we want to seat the gentleman who received 2 votes, we don't care about the man who received 5,000 votes. That is exactly how much power this House has under its Constitutional authority.

It is hard to believe, but that is exactly the power we have. We may completely disregard the evidence and the facts found by the Committee and by the courts. But you must remember that the courts are the creatures of this Legislature, we have created them, and the Committee is our Committee.

Now, in voting on this matter, I am going to ask you to do something that is almost impossible. I am going to ask the Members of this House to divorce from their minds while they are voting the matter of politics. I agree it is almost impossible, but in this particular case when you vote on this resolution I think the moral issue surpasses, is much higher than any other issue, political or otherwise.

Now, what happens here? The man seated here is Mr. Meholchick, a member of the majority party. The man seeking the seat, endeavoring to unseat Mr. Meholchick, is a member of my own party, Mr. Butler. I am going to ask the Members, particularly the Members on my side of the House, to support this resolution. I repeat, I am asking the Members on the minority side of the House to support this resolution because I feel that the court which we have created has had an opportunity to hear the witnesses, has had them under oath, has examined them and cross-examined them.

The Committee has the record from the Luzerne County court. In addition to that, they had counsel appearing for each contestant, there was oral argument and there was a written brief submitted.

So in view of that and in view of the fact that there was no additional evidence submitted, I am going to ask the Members, particularly on our side of the House, to support Resolution 56.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE

Mr. WESCOTT offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 3, 1955.

The passing of the Honorable Frederick T. Gelder, former member and former President Pro Tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania on Friday, April 29th, eleven weeks after his State career ended through dismissal from the Liquor Control Board by Governor Leader, after thirty-four years of public service certainly merits the oft quoted biblical saying "Well done good and faithful servant" . . .

Frederick T. Gelder was an influential force in the affairs of his home town, his county, his State and his Nation. He was an inspirational leader in the Republican Party he loved so well. His life though quiet was a service of guidance and influence upon his fellowmen. He was a man of quality, a man of ability, a man of honesty and a man of loyalty, and his life of simple christianity served as an example for us all.

Frederick T. Gelder, born at Carbondale, June 4, 1874, the son of Frederick T. and Catherine (Blake) Gelder. He is married to the former Edith L. Brown and has a son and two daughters. He was twice elected Justice of the Peace, served as Postmaster during the Theodore Roosevelt and William H. Taft administrations. He was a member of the General Assembly for 20 years, two years as Representative of Susquehanna County and 16 years as State Senator from the 23rd Senatorial District. In January, 1939, he was elected President Pro Tempore of the State Senate. He served by appointment of Governors Brumbaugh, Sproul, Pinchot and Fisher on the Board of Trustees of the Fairview State Hospital, much of the time as President of the Board. During the World War he was a member of the State Committee on Public Safety, local Food and Fuel Administrator and County Chairman of Four Minute Men. In 1939-40 he was a member of the General State Authority by virtue of his office as President Pro Tempore of the State Senate. In 1940 he was the Republican candidate for Auditor General. Mr. Gelder is a newspaper man. He acquired his newspaper training on the Carbondale Leader, leaving the city editorship of that paper to purchase the Forest City News in 1898. In 1929 he became a publisher of the Carbondale Leader, retaining ownership until September, 1941. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association, the Masonic Fraternity and other organizations. Mr. Gelder was appointed by Governor Arthur H. James as a member of the Liquor Control Board on December 9, 1940, and on August 5, 1941, was made Chairman of the Board. He was reappointed by Governor Edward Martin on January 14, 1944. He served as Chairman until his dismissal February 7, 1955.

Senator Gelder took his greatest pride in his family and was a devoted husband and father. As stated he married the former Edith L. Brown and has one son, Attorney Franklin G. Gelder, Scranton and two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Bryan, Champaign, Illinois, and Mrs. Charlotte Smock, Terre Haute, Indiana.

He was a member of the Trinity Episcopal Church in Carbondale Pennsylvania, therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives give expression to the loss it has sustained by the death of our former member and to many of us a close and valued friend whose qualities of heart and mind brought prominence and respect and endeared him to all, and be it further

Resolved, That we extend to his family bereaved of his tender presence, our heartfelt sympathy and pray for them that consolation that can only come from Him, who doeth all things well, and we join with them in the satisfaction of the recollection and memory of his life work so useful and well done, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution duly attested be forwarded to his family.

We pray Thee now to make the minds of those who legislate for us God centered. May Thy guidance lead them to understand that they are not only the servants of the people but Thy servants also. That they serve best who serve Thee.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. MUSTO. RESOLUTION No. 68.

In the House of Representatives, May 3, 1955.

One Harry (Jerry) Butler filed an appeal from the unanimous decision of the Luzerne County Court in the election contest involving the 2nd Legislative District of Luzerne County.

As a result of the appeal, there was brought to the attention of the members of the House Committee on Election and Apportionment, the record in the proceedings which showed a flagrant abuse and disregard of the election laws in Luzerne County by the officials acting by or on behalf of the Luzerne County Board of Elections, and the Luzerne County Registration Commission.

The record indicates that this disregard of the election laws in Luzerne County has existed to such an extent that this is an open and notorious scandal.

The record indicates that there were obvious erasures on the official election records in the custody of the election officials of Luzerne County; therefore be it

Resolved, That a committee be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives to investigate election frauds and conditions and registration frauds and conditions in Luzerne County; and be it further

Resolved, That the entire record in these investigation proceedings be referred to the Attorney General of Pennsylvania for such additional action as he shall deem appropriate.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. TOMPKINS and TOLL.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 69.

In the House of Representatives, May 3, 1955.

The opportunity which our Nation offers for a person to freely engage in a small business enterprise is one of our most important beckoning features to those on foreign shores. It is a feature of our society of which we are justly proud, for small businesses have been highly important in the establishment and development of our Nation.

Mergers, consolidations and other jointures have in recent years produced business giants, capable of doing greater volumes of business at far less expense, and as a result thereof, small businesses are badly in need of assistance. Because of the importance of small businesses to our economy and general welfare, it is our duty to insure their survival.

An equitable share of the Commonwealth's business and contracts should be allotted among our small businesses as often as possible. The establishment of a loan procedure should also be considered to encourage the establishment of new businesses and the continuance of existing small businesses. There is also a possibility that the present rates of taxation imposed upon our small businesses are too great; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the President pro tempore of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint three members of the House, and the Governor appoint five men from small businesses who together shall constitute a committee to make a thorough study of the taxes and other problems faced by small businesses within our Commonwealth; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations for appropriate legislation to this Session of the General Assembly within thirty days.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. POMEROY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I wish to respectfully call the attention of this House to the fact that yesterday the State of New Jersey unanimously passed a bill in their Legislature which by admission of the sponsor of the bill is only a beginning to protect the children of New Jersey against poliomyelitis. New York has already followed suit.

The stark facts of reported cases of poliomelitis show that the infantile paralysis season is already upon us. The medical authorities of this state have shown their confidence in the Salk vaccine by continuing to inoculate our first and second grade children.

There were several bills introduced three weeks ago to protect our children from polio. I again implore this House to act rapidly on these bills to set up the machinery and provide adequate funds to protect our children in this most vulnerable age against poliomyelitis as soon as possible. This is not a partisan issue. It is an issue of the health and lives of our children.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and received unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, last night Governor Leader at the Mosque said, and I quote, "I am against taxes." The "I" meant Charlie Smith because he named me in his speech.

Again I was quite flattered because now that the Governor is naming me, and the Speaker is naming me, things are really happening around here.

He was certainly right about my being against taxes as far as his "soak everybody" tax program is concerned. I am certainly against putting a third tax on everybody's pay envelope; I am certainly against a two per cent tax on the profits of small business; I am certainly against a four or five per cent tax on the incomes of widows and retired people; I am certainly against taxing six per cent on the profits of a man when he sells his home when he is forced to move from one place to another to get work.

As far as my record on taxes is concerned, I will stack it against the Governor's record any hour of any day or any day of any week. He, of all people, has an awful lot of—I use the word "nerve"—to throw stones.

Look at the Governor's record when he was a Senator, and look at his vote on taxes. He voted against the income tax in 1951; he was against the sales tax in 1953; he was against the realty transfer tax in both of those years. In fact, as I said the other day, he has a perfect record when it comes to voting against taxes. He never even voted for a single new tax that would balance the state budget.

If he had had his way in 1953, we would have a deficit today of $160 million for the biennium and the Commonwealth would have been in bankruptcy. He took the stand that the state only neded $800 million in revenue when he was a Senator. Now he throws rocks at the Legislature because we question his demand for $600 million in additional taxes. I might remind the Governor that people who live in glass houses should never throw stones.

There is something else I noticed in the Governor's speech last night, and I wish the gentlemen of the Press would take particular interest in this, if they haven't read the speech.

The Governor's technique of blaming everybody is now expanding. His quotes, and I quote from his speech,

> I am quite aware that the tax proposals got off to a bad start because they were leaked incorrectly while discussions were in progress at the Capitol.

"Well, now, if any of the ideas that the Governor had were "leaked," I don't think he can blame that on the Republicans; I don't think he can blame that on the Press, he has to blame it on somebody that he has in his confidence in his office. I can assure him there are no Republicans that I know of that are in his confidence at this point.

Also he said, and I keep quoting,

> I know that it has been misrepresented—this is his tax program that he is talking about—I know that it is getting a bad Press from the same editorialists who were so righteously for fiscal responsibility when Sam Reyburn was trying to reduce the Federal personal income taxes.

Now this I like:

> Then I am also sure that it is substantially right. Being right, it will get its full measure of public support when the public gets honest facts instead of distortions.

In yesterday's newspaper the Governor is reported as saying, and I quote,

> "Earlier yesterday"—this being at lunchtime—"Leader told a luncheon meeting of Democratic Women, 'Do not believe what you see in the newspapers or what the opposition says'."

Well, it seems that now the members of the Press are to blame.

For a long while it was Duff, he got all the blame; then Fine got all the blame; then all the Republicans got all the blame. Thank goodness, we are not by ourselves, now the Press is to blame because they are not reporting the facts right, according to the Governor. They are not even reporting the truth right, according to the Governor.

I don't like to say this, Mr. Speaker, but when the Governor starts getting personal I am going to say what it reminds me of. I have seen spoiled children before and, let me tell you, a spoiled child blames everybody but himself for anything that happens. And I can also say his fatuous theory of life is that it is everybody's fault but "my" fault.

I would like to say that the Governor has a lot of control in this state, I agree, but if the Governor thinks that he is going to have the right to censor the Press, to censor their thinking, and to keep from the people of this Commonwealth the facts the way the Press, an honest Press, interprets them, I think the Governor had better either start writing his own speeches or start thinking just a little bit differently. I don't agree with that, I am sure the people don't agree with that, and I am sure there are not many Members in this House will agree with it.

The Press in my estimation, and the Press in the estimation of the public, reports the truth as they, the Press, see it. Whether we like it or not, we have to abide by it. That is one of the things we have the Press for.

You can call us, the Republicans, whatever you want, you can call Duff whatever you want, you can call Fine whatever you want, Mr. Governor, but this one thing is certain, one of the big freedoms we have in this country and in America is freedom of the Press, and you are not going to change it by condemning it. When you get the facts right, the Press will report them right. So now it is very nice to know that in our boat we also have the Press, that is also against the Governor's program.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

(During the calling of the roll)

The SPEAKER. The Members are not answering to their names. We will not make a record of any one not voting. It is up to the Members of this House to make it possible for the Clerks to make a correct roll call, and the Clerks can not record the Members they can not hear. This Chair is not disposed to permit the desk to make up a roll call on a possibly controversial measure.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. I have been advised that many people, like myself, in this House voted on this bill due to the confusion, in the full belief that they were casting a ballot on the preceding bill, and I therefore would like to make—

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman there is nothing in order but the roll call. The Chair called the attention of the House in as loud a voice as the Speaker possessed, and announced the Bill upon which the House was acting, not only once, but twice.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. GOLDSTEIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker. I voted originally "aye" on this bill, not due to any default on the part of the Speaker, but possibly due to my lack of hearing, and I want the Members of the House to know what they voted for today.

Under one section of this bill they give the privilege to police officers to stop people upon the public highway, demand that they give identification and putting in writing their names and addresses, this is for the apparent purpose of preventing jay-walking. Voting for such a bill is merely the creating of the beginning of a police state, when a policeman can stop a citizen on the highway and demand his name and address.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE ON HOUSE BILL No. 756

Mr. AMARANDO. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 756, Printer's No. 204, entitled:

"An act amending the act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 905), entitled 'Vehicle Code,' changing the requirements regarding use of different types of danger and caution signals."

was defeated on final passage Tuesday, April 26, 1955, be reconsidered.

Mrs. MARKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Amarando, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. AMARANDO. Mr. Speaker, I voted with the prevailing side.

The SPEAKER. How did the lady from Lehigh, Mrs. Markley, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mrs. MARKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I voted with the prevailing side.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the final passage postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. READINGER, from the Committee on Rules, reported as amended, House Resolution No. 47.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that quite a few Members have asked me whether we are going to have a consent calendar tomorrow, I would like to state again emphatically that we are not going to have a session at all tomorrow.

The announcement I made several weks ago was that we would go into three working days each week, with the exception of the period during the Primary. I would like to tell you at this time that the leadership of the House is considering, or is reconsidering the matter of whether we will meet at all during the week of May 16th.

There seems to be quite a great deal of opposition to the fact that we intended to meet on Wednesday and Thursday of that week. The reason is that many of the Members of this House are interested in the Primary on Tuesday the 17th, will probably be working late at night and so forth. By Monday of next week we will tell you definitely whether we will meet at all the following week.

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Various delegations have Chairmen. The Chair is disposed in the days to come to ask the Chairmen of delegations to request leave of absence for the Members of their delegations who are not present in the Hall of the House.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. AUKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the bill I am about to introduce is the same bill I introduced in 1953. It is an economy bill. The bill provides for a moratorium for five years for all buildings under the General State Authority. Now I know in very many circles such a bill is very unpopular because it eliminates a lot of spending, and in my mind very often unnecessary spending.

For instance, in 1953 three new office buildings were started under the extension of the ceiling of the General State Authority. Not one building went up for child care or things of that nature. Certainly we need child care and looking after our delinquent children more than we need office buildings.

I suppose this bill will meet the same fate that the bill did in 1953. It will go into a Committee and be forgotten. Possibly this administration will be like the last administration, talk economy but not practice it. I am hitting at both parties when I say that.

It reminds me of a story, and then I am finished, Mr. Speaker, of the two travelers on an English railroad train. One an American and one a very nice old lady, who were seated in the same railroad compartment. The American was chewing gum very assiduously—that is a good word by the way—and the old lady was sitting and watching him and watching him. Finally she leaned over to him and she said, "Well, I am sorry, you seem to be making conversation, but I am stone deaf."

The SPEAKER. The Chair will be disposed to refer the gentleman's bill to the Rules Committee, perhaps with the hope that it will be reported out, to the end that the Chair might have the opportunity to take the floor and debate the merits of the measure with the gentleman from Blair.

Mr. AUKER. I shall be happy to accept the challenge, Mr. Speaker.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. McKEEVER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, May 9, 1955, at 3:30 p. m., EST.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 12:54 p. m., EST.) the House adjourned.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1955. 141st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, MAY 9, 1955. No. 42.

SENATE

MONDAY, May 9, 1955.

The Senate met at 2:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JOHN B WILLIAMS, Pastor of the Second Baptist Church, Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, our Heavenly Father, as a formlity and out of respect for custom, we open this as other meetings with prayer. Each stands with his head bowed, but how many are moved by the spirit of this privilege of communion with Thy Spirit? For the most part, our minds and hearts are indifferent to Thee and Thy causes, O God, in whose name we pray. In these deliberating bodies, oftimes the only limit set on any activity of the day is set on the prayer. As Thy ministers, we are reminded to make the prayer short. For some reason, we are uncomfortable in Thy presence and we are always glad when this formality is over. We have not learned, as the Psalmist, that "In Thy Presence there is fullness of joy and at Thy right hand are pleasures for evermore."

We pray Thy eternal blessings upon those in whose hands has been trusted the destiny of our Nation. Bless the President of our Country, the Governor of our State, and especially these men, called by their fellows from the mass, to stand in the gateway to guide, direct, plan and lead in the right way and do the thing that will bring the greatest good to the largest number of people.

Grant, we pray Thee, that they shall be men of vision, faith and courage. Remind them constantly that the laws they pass will affect their children and their neighbors' children for generations yet unborn.

We are living in a time of crisis where great decisions must be made, a time of conflict and confusion. This is no time for playing politics; this is no time to divide ourselves into groups and factions. This time calls for a united front, a concerted effort. Help us that we discern the signs of our times and to pledge under God to challenge the task before us, with but one purpose in our minds and hearts that, through us, God's Will be done.

So that when our day is done and we must come to Thee with a full accounting of our stewardship, we may come unafraid, knowing we did our best.

We pray in Thy Holy Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the proceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the presiding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. STEVENSON, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, after many weeks of asking Leave of Absence from some of my colleagues, I am very happy today to say that we have twenty-six able, healthy Republican Senators on this side who are all present today.

The PRESIDENT. The remarks of the gentleman will be noted in the Legislative Journal.

We are glad to see that the ill Members have returned to the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to say that we on this side are also happy to know that the Republicans at last are—I will not say able I will say hale and hearty.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, the Allegheny County Burgesses Association is aware of the many arduous duties imposed upon the members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, in the proper performance of those duties the members of the Senate and House are sometimes called upon to make many sacrifices, financially and otherwise, far beyond the ordinary requirements of a duly elected official, and

Whereas, to prevent these sacrifices from becoming so burdensome that it becomes prohibitive for members of the Senate and House to continue to serve, or that a situation develops wherein qualified men will no longer be attracted to serve, the members of the Allegheny County Burgesses Association believe that proper emoluments would not only attract men willing to serve the ardous duties imposed upon the members of both Houses but would reward the present members for sacrifices already made.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Allegheny County Burgesses Association, and it is hereby resolved by the authority of the same, that the members of this Association endorse an increase in salary for the members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Be It Further Resolved that this Resolution be spread upon the minutes of this meeting and that copies thereof be sent to the Governor and Chairman of the Senate and House of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I Move the adoption of the foregoing Resolution.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, a few weeks ago, the Governor at a press conference stated that a bill would be introduced by me giving the right to all State institutions, all institutions supported by tax money or partially by tax money, and nonprofit hospitals, to purchase milk on a competitive market. In other words, not under the control of the Milk Control Commission. Although the retail price would not be fixed, this open competition of the institutions, hospitals and penal institutions to buy milk on the competitive market would not influence any arrangement now existing with the former.

Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, last year in Pennsylvania there were 896,752,790 quarts of grade 1 milk sold in Pennsylvania. Unfortunately, the amount sold in Pennsylvania in 1954 did not keep in step with the increase in milk sold in other States which no not have Milk Control Commissions. Originally there were thirty-eight States that had State control of milk. Today there are only twelve States, and Surrounding Pennsylvania none of the States have State Milk Control Commission on retail prices.

Mr. President, in Pennsylvania, if we permit the institutions to buy milk on a competitive basis, we will effect a great saving. This saving, I believe, will be turned into moneys that can be used by these institutions to buy more milk. According to the per capita usage of milk in our institutions in Pennsylvania, it is much lower than in other States. For instance, it is estimated that close to fifty million quarts of Grade 1 milk is used in all the institutions and hospitals in our State. If this milk can be purchased on the same basis as it is purchased in New York, Ohio, New Jersey, Maryland and all our sister States, there will be a saving of around two and one-half million dollars to those institutions and to those tax supported institutions.

Therefore, Mr. President, I believe that this bill should be given immediate consideration. It will not affect in any way the farmer. It will revive competition in prices and. above all, it will destroy the one lust Fund that is being used in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the advantage of political parties.

Mr. President, last week a milk dealer came to me and said, "I had a contract for furnishing milk to a State institution." A politician came to him and said, "I can get you that contract." The milk dealer said, "Not being a politician myself, I believed it to be a friendly gesture and I received that contract to supply milk to this institution. However, before I got finished giving political donations to that ward heeler and all his friends. I found that at the end of the year I had lost a quarter of a cent on every quart of milk I sold to the institution due to the kick-back I had been making to the political parties."

Mr. President, I believe this bill will stop that lush fund and it will bring back and save the people money. The Milk Control Commission, by control of competitive bidding, is absolutely permitting a privileged few to receive all the contracts for milk in the Commonwealth. I hope my friends on the other side, and my friends on this side who are in favor of free competitive industry, which is called free enterprise, will rush and help me to get this bill reported from committee.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. HOLLAND, FLEMING and SILVERT read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 398, entitled:

An Act permiting milk produced in this Commonwealth to be sold to institutions supported wholly or partially by tax money, and to nonprofit hospitals, without regard to minimum prices fixed by the Milk Control Commission.

Which was committed to the Committee on Agriculture.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President and Member of the Senate, Senator Holland has just now made an accusation based on hearsay evidence, stating that someone last week had told him that he had to kick into certain politicians in order to obtain State contracts to sell milk or, at least, to pay back for milk which he had sold in return for the privilege of selling it. Now that statement was based on hearsay. Certainly, in any court of law, Senator Holland would not be permited to testify to what he has now stated.

Mr. President, I think that we certainly should be sure of our facts before we get up here as Members of this Senate and make accusations such as Senator Holland just made. If Senator Holland, of his own knowledge, knows that to be a fact, that someone had to pay in, that is one thing but to take somebody's statement like he did, that is another.

We, as Members of the Senate, should try to have the public of Pennsylvania have confidence in the Administration, in the Senate and in the House, regardless of whether it is Democratic controlled or whether it is Republican controlled, and statements such as Senator Holland has made, without having any substantiation to them, certainly undermine or serve to undermine the confidence which the people have in their government. I do not know whether the gentleman, who spoke to the Senator last week, implied that the Democrats were at fault, whether he had to kick into them or kick into some other administration, but I think in all fairness to the people of Pennsylvania, both Republicans and Democrats, the Senator should be pretty sure of his facts before making such accusations as he has made.

Now, Mr. President, I am not going to go into the merits of his bill. I do not know whether the Governor is for this legislation or against it. That can be determined when we discuss it when, as and if this bill comes before the Senate. However, I did want to rise in place and make some objection to Senator Holland's casting reflections without having more proof than he has at the present time.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, without going into the details of the matter and so forth, I am giving the gentlemen the opportunity of taking the occasion of sin away from everybody through the passage of this bill.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. FLEMING asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I am a co-sponsor of this bill with Senator Holland, the objectives of which I believe are very admirable and certainly if we can do anything that will save money in the purchase of milk by State-aided institutions and hospitals, I am one hundred per cent for it.

Now, Senator Holland made certain introductory remarks about which I knew nothing, and with which I could not subscribe because I, for one, do not believe that such conditions exist in Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I merely wanted to clarify my position on it. I am for the bill; I am for the merits of the bill; and I believe it is doing good for the people of Pennsylvania and certainly good for the Commonwealth which, in all probability, can cut down on some of the appropriations it makes to some of the State-aided institutions.

Senator Holland, again I must say, is entitled to make any satement he desires to make, but I merely wanted to clear up for the Membership the fact that his statement in introducing the bill was not shared in by me as co-sponsor.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. SCHMIDT, HAYS, KOPRIVER, JR., and FLEMING read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 399, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949, (P. L. 30), entitled "An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," by further providing for the establishment of kindergartens.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

JUNIOR HIGH INTERMEDIATE FELLOWSHIP GROUP OF GRACE METHODIST CHURCH PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I would like to call to the attention of the Chair the presence of a delegation of the Junior High Intermediate Fellowship Group, of Grace Methodist Church, Harrisburg, accompanied by Miss Mary Louise Heckman. They are in the gallery.

The PRESIDENT. We are very happy to have such constituents of Senator Taylor's with us today. We hope you enjoy your stay with us.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, on February 7 I arose on this Senate floor and introduced a resolution in which I charged that boxing in Pennsylvania was run by the hoodlums and the racketeers, and had been run for many years by this sinister mob. I asked this body for the appointment of a commission so that an immediate investigation could take place to protect the citizens of this great Commonwealth.

Mr. President, on that same day, the resolution went to the Committee on Law and Order, composed, if you please, of eleven Republicans and six Democrats. That Committee on Law and Order met a few weeks after that, and the resolution was safely and soundly tucked away by the chairman of that committee. I do not know who was on the Senate floor, but I asked for the resolution to be brought out and I attacked the chairman of the committee for not bringing it out. The Majority Leader, Mr. President, saw fit to defend the actions of the chairman of the Committee on Law and Order for not bringing that resolution out to investigate boxing.

I charged at that time, Mr. President, that if we sat on our hands in this Senate body, we were aiding and abetting the criminals and the hoodlums and giving them an open invitation to come within Pennsylvania and continue their actions, but nothing was forthcoming. The Majority Leader justified the resolution not coming out. He did not say that the Chairman had any intention of having an investigation. He just let it go by the wayside and so, Mr. President, it is now history that on Friday evening, in the city of Philadelphia, there was a boxing match which astounded the entire United States and even Europe; that a fighter was openly doped, a fighter who went in the ring, who was a six to one favorite at three o'clock in the afternoon, suddenly dropped to a two to one favorite a half an hour before fight time.

That is a clear case, Mr. President, that somebody, or a lot of bodies, were in the know and that this was a purposely designed plan to fool the people of this State and the Country, and while millions of citizens of the United States were sitting at their television sets, they saw a fighter who could not even sit on his stool and that fighter emanated from Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, so that the record can be correct, a week ago Friday, a week ago Friday, I sent a letter to the Chairman of the Committee on Law and Order, a week ago this past Friday, and I again requested of him in a letter the importance of getting the resolution out. I again stressed with him the importance of an investigation of this activity, which has for years dominated good people in this State.

Before I go further, Mr. President, may I say that I am a boxing fan and I love the sport, but I love it clean and honest as every decent Senator sitting here does and as all of us do. Yet, we had no action even after that letter I sent on the 29th. Neither did the Chairman of the Committee on Law and Order call me, write to me nor did he take action on this Senate floor or in the Committee.

Lo and behold, Mr. President, on Saturday, after this episode took place on Friday, from Garden State Race Track the Chairman of the Committee on Law and Order issued a statement, and I have the clippings here, coming from the Garden State Race Track in which he said that, well, he wanted to have an investigation; that was in his mind all the time to have his own investigation by the Committe on Law and Order, but that my resolution deterred him from doing that.

Now, Mr. President, as the boys on the corner would say, "Somebody is copping a plea." I want to say to this body, Mr. President, that this sport is getting brazen beyond control; that the green light is out, that Pennsylvania is the place where it can happen.

Mr. President, let me refer to this present commisison that we have. This present commisison went in office a short time ago. I was told that conditions in Philadelphia, where the past chairman held his office and reigned as Athletic Commissioner, are in such a bad condition and the files are in such a deplorable stage that they have been working day and night to attempt to straighten this situation out.

I may say this to you, Mr. President, that the method in which this Athletic Commission undertook to correct this condiion immediately, to place guards around this fighter in taking every test, is certainly to their credit. I say as I said before, Mr. President, that you cannot build a strong future on a weak past unless you recognize the weakness.

The Committee on Law and Order, Mr. President, and I have deep respect for the ability of every Senator who is on that committee, does not have the adquate facilities nor does it have the adequate help to conduct a proper investigation. This is a matter for a body, as I have set forth in my resolution. If that committee undertakes an investigation, there is no doubt in my mind that I shall be up on this floor again waving my fingers and saying, "I told you so." The mere statement of the chairman of that committee, which he made on Saturday from the race track, is an indication of what direction that investigation will head for.

Therefore, Mr. President, I say this on this floor to the Senators today, that unless we have a decent investigation, this sport is going to grow into more and more coruption. I shall this afternoon, as I did an hour ago, call upon the Secretary of Revenue to suspend boxing in Pennsylvania immediately until there is a thorough investigation, and I shall call the attention of the Governor to take like action as soon as I complete my session here this afternoon.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, it is true what the distinguished gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Donolow, had to say about Resolution, Serial No. 108, Legislative Journal, page 271. This is a resolution which was submitted to the Senate by Senators Donolow, Yosko, Silvert, Camiel and Holland on February the 7th.

Mr. President, the gentleman is certainly in error in stating that this resolution has never been given any consideration and has been laid back in the files to die. That is some more hearsay and thoughts of his which have no merit whatsoever. I have given this resolution careful consideration, and I have also discussed it with other members of my committee. I can say to you gentlemen just this, that this resolution is nothing in the world but something to create another job for three outside citizens who are not needed in any way in this investigation. It also gives the Deputy Attorney General the right to put on additional attorneys; it also gives the committee the right to stay in action for one year.

Mr. President, I personally feel, and so do other members of my committee, that this is not necessary. I also feel that way today, that it is not necessary. It is true that Senator Donolow talked with me on several occasions about this resolution and I, at no time, promised him that I would bring this resolution out. Now he feels as though this committee has been, neglectful, especially the chairman. I take all of the blame; I wish to assume the blame for this resolution. I am certainly not passing the buck to any member of the committee. Had I thought that at any time there was enough support, I would have brought it before the committee. I am opposed to creating committees to investigate and investigate and investigate, which get nowhere.

Mr. President, we have just gone through one investigation and we found that the merits of that investigation meant nothing to the public. It helped the situation none. This resolution would also work the same way. In my opinion, it would create jobs for three outsiders for one year. It would put on additional attorneys general at a cost to the taxpayers.

Mr. President, the young gentleman, too, made a remark about writing me a letter on the 29th. I never received a letter from the Senator on the 29th, and I am not questioning whether he wrote the letter. I certainly would not question his honesty in any way, but I say to you gentlemen that I did not receive the letter. Had I received his letter, I would have replied to it. There are other Senators here who have written me letters and I know that I have replied to them. I owe that courtesy to Senator Donolow, to answer him also. I say to the gentleman, I am sorry. Had I received it. I would have answered his letter.

Now, Mr. President, the next step, he must get personal and he must explain to the Senate of Pennsylvania where I spent a most enjoyable afternoon on Saturday. I was present at Garden State Race Track and I saw some odds fall over there, too; not on a fighter this time but on a horse. I did, I ran a horse called "Mrs. G. R," named after my wife and as my wife is good, she is good. She is a good horse. As far as odds go, the public makes all odds. They make odds on prize fighters, and I do not think anybody in this Senate Chamber would question about tips on prize fighters. I remember back in the Earle Administration that I attended the boxing matches regularly, and I saw a fighter hit the canvas who was missed by three feet and he fell back and went down.

Mr. President, I do not in any way defend the boxing game or any other business, but until someone is proven guilty in this Country they are innocent. I have no reason in the world to question everybody in the boxing business and call them crooks, and I do not intend to do it. I think that it is unfair for the Senator from Philadelphia to make such remarks. He claims to know everything about the boxing business. He claims to know all of the fighters and he claims to know what is wrong. I say to the Senator from Philadelphia that if he possesses such valuable information, such crooked information, such violation of the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, violations of the Boxing Code, why has he not gone to the Attorney General? Why has he not gone to the Boxing Commission? The Republicans were in and now the Democrats. I think it is very easy to stand on the floor of this Senate and condemn when yau talk under Senatorial immunity and cannot be held for libel; that you can say what you please and get away with it. However, I think that we should be fair to the fellow who cannot answer us except through the medium of newspapers or some other way.

Mr. President, I know personally of no individual in the boxing business whom I could call crooked. If I did know anyone who I could call crooked and could prove it, I would go to the Attorney General, or I would go to the Boxing Commission, and ask for their prosecution. I think that is exactly what the Senator from Philadelphia should do, without wasting the taxpayers' money on the creation of a committee here which would run and run and no results would come from it.

"Beyond their control," he stated over there, Mr. President. I would not dare think that any vice or any wrong which existed in Pennsylvania was beyond the control of the authorities. I think that our authorities are honest, I think the Philadelphia Police Department is honest, I think our Attorney General is honest, but I think if people accuse others of things they are not just too honest when they do not turn them in and tell them who is so dishonest and who should be discredited.

Mr. President, I also would like to call to the attention of the Members of the Senate that there is no need for future laws if this situation is so bad. Governor Leader has all the power possessed in anybody in the world to stop boxing at any time that he wishes and so does the commission, which is ruling over the boxing game, have that power.

I did not see the fight on Friday night on television, but I cannot remember during any Republican Administration that a boxer was knocked out without being hit in his corner. Now this fellow fell out and the Senator said that he was doped. I do not know whether he was doped or not. He could have been scared. I read the Sunday papers, The Philadelphia Bulletin and the Inquirer, and these papers said that the findings were such that he was not doped. Unless there has been a further release, I do not know; I am going to still think that he was not doped. I am going to feel as though he was scared to fight. I know a little bit, too, about the boxing business and I also read that the Commissioner was in this boxer's dressing room. Commissioner Klein, whom I have never met, whom I have never had the pleasure of meeting and it is my hope that I will have that pleasure, saw this fighter in a groggy condition. They noticed it before he ever went out in the first round. They noticed that he was in a groggy condition. The referee, his seconds, all saw that he was groggy. Now I ask you, in all fairness, what is a referee and what is a Commissioner there for when they see a man in a groggy condition who is not able to defend himself in the ring? What are they there for? The Commissioner had all the power any man needed to stop this fight, and the referee had all the power that he needed to stop the fight. Everybody knew this man was groggy but the fighter. The fighter did not know that he was groggy.

This reminds me of a story that I heard once about a second telling a fighter whom he was seconding, when the fighter came back after the first round, "Get in there boy and fight. Go ahead, you are getting the best of him. He never touched you." The fighter looked around at his second and he said, "Is that referee hitting me?"

Now I say to you gentlemen of the Senate, and Mr. President, something is wrong when all of these people with the power to stop this fight saw this fighter unable to fight an honest fight, and knowing that this was going out over television and knowing that people were in the audience to see it. I think then it is time to do some censoring of the Commissioners and it is time to do some censoring of the referees. I think that it is time to ask for some suspensions and put men on the job who know what they are doing and know what they see, and never mind about a resolution creating a committee to be composed of three Senators and three Members of the House, and providing for the appointment of three outside persons, to come in and investigate. If you do not understand what you are looking at, there is no need of trying to tell them that you can do it by words from the Senate or from the House.

Also, Mr. President, something else could have happened to that boy. It was known once before in his career, back about five years, that this same Johnson, this same fighter five years ago fell out on the mat on which he was fighting and he had a fractured vertebra. I am told by some people that vertebras slip in and out when they have been injured. I will not argue that point with the medical profession, but I have been told that. I know of people who have worked in offices and had vertebras that have slipped out, and they would have to be taken to a doctor to have it put back in place. I had that happen to a lady who worked for me.

Mr. President, before the Senator becomes so critical, so severe in his criticism to ruin the character of every man in the boxing profession, I think that he should weigh his words and give consideration to the fellow who cannot speak back on the floor of the Senate, and that is the fellow I am speaking for today.

The Senator also made a remark the last time he talked that he wanted to know my interest in the boxing business. I have no interest whatsoever. I have no interest whatsoever in it, gentlemen, but I certainly will defend the boxing business or any other business until such time as there is proper evidence to prove that it is unworthy for our people to watch on television or for our people to go and see.

Mr. President, I charge today that the Senator has been unfair. I ask of him as a Senator, as a man representing the people of the State of Pennsylvania and not just the people of the City of Philadelphia, that if he has information in his possession, he turn it over immediately to the Attorney General or the commission which controls boxing.

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, I hope the Senator, my colleague, knows more about the race track and the horses than he has displayed about boxing.

Mr. President, he has made a statement that under the Republican Administration nothing of this sort of an incident happened which happened Friday night. Let me refresh his memory of the great scandals in boxing, in going back from the beginning to the present time in the Republican Administration. Primo Carnera—Ace Clark, Johnny Saxton—Kid Gavilan, the people of the world are still talking about that and that has not been so long ago when it caused an uproar.

Let us go a little further. In every fight that Billy Fox fought, he took a dive at the racketeers hands. This is all under Republican Administrations. The Ike Williams—Johnny Bratton champion fight, where there was open knowledge that $30,000 was given to Ike Williams to take a dive—This was all under the Republican Administration.

Now I am interested, Mr. President, in protecting the good people in boxing. Sure there are good people in boxing. There are a lot of good people in boxing who are trying to do a job but they cannot, because the hoodlums and the racketeers have control of the sport. I am speaking for the good people and everybody in this Senate wants the good people to prevail, because if there were all bad people in this sport none of us would stand here and argue and raise our voices. We want the fellows who go out there and fight, and get a $700 purse and then only have $75 when the fight is over, after taking the beatings, because the racketeers get all the money and take it away from these boys. These are the good people that we want to protect. We want to protect the managers who want to do the right thing, but have a guild which controls sport events and sport managers. We want to do the same thing in Pennsylvania that they started to do in New York just a few days ago, and that is have an investigation.

Mr. President, when one Senator on this floor stands up and talks about the righteous, he does not have a monoply on righteousness. We all are interested in righteousness and good people. Do I have the evidence? Yes, I have the evidence, Mr. President.

Let the chairman bring the resolution out; let the committee be appointed, and if he so desires, let him take away the three members who are to be paid. I will agree to that amendment to the resolution. Let there be three Senators and three House Members. Let us do away with a Special Deputy Attorney General, and have a Deputy Attorney General who is on the pay roll now represent the group. If the Senator is sincere and interested to protect the people of Pennsylvania, I will go along to save that money because I am interested in the good people of Pennsylvania and I am interested in the survival of the sport.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I do not think that we can determine what happened in Philadelphia by any debate here this afternoon. However, I do believe that the gentleman from Delaware ought to be complimented on the fine memory that he has, and also the apparent lack of memory in some instances. He certainly remembered that haymaker that was swung and never landed back in the Earle Administration, and seems to have forgotten the intervening sixteen years.

However, Mr. President, I might say that I talked to the Governor today and the Governor informed me that he has summoned the Boxing Commission to give him a report as soon as they have all of the facts assembled. I understand that they will be in town tomorrow to talk to the Governor and I believe that in the presence of two of the Republican Members of this Senate and myself and Senator Barr, who conferred with the Governor this morning about other matters pertaining to the operation of our General Assembly pertinent to the duties thereof, the Governor displayed quite a little interest in this matter and quite a little determination. I might say to all of you here now that I understood the Governor to make the point that if the explanation of what happened Friday night is not reasonable and cannot stand the light of day, he personally will call off all boxing in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for such a period of time as will be required to clear it up.

Mr. President, I do not profess to be an expert on either boxing, horses or women and I get way over my head when I try to give any kind of advice on them. I might say that the peculiar thing about this fight Friday night, for the interest of those of you who did not see the fight, is that any boxer, and having had a little experience on the receiving end of punches when I was a young man and in the Marine Corps—at one time I was considered a pretty fair fighter by myself, and it is funny that the opponents I had never had too much respect for my own consideration of my own abilities. They just waded in and did not care how good I thought I was. However, Mr. President, I never knew of a boxer who accepted an orange from a stranger right before he goes into the ring. In fact, I never knew a boxer who accepted an orange.

The second peculiar thing, Mr. President, was that in the first round of that fight this man, Harold Johnson, according to any person who has ever watched a fight and knows something about how a fight is judged, and by the reports also in the printed press, had the round very decisively and that he carried on through the second round until a few seconds before the bell and then suddenly realized that he was supposed to get groggy.

I think, Mr. President, there is a certain amount of looseness in the management not only of boxing and horses, but sometimes in the management of women. There will never be any kind of a law, or any kind of a group or commission named, that will exterminate all of the evils which might creep into any kind of an activity that has with it the occasion of sin, as Elmer Holland placed it a while ago, and in which betting can take place. The nation was rocked a few years ago by the scandals in basketball. That does not mean that the sport itself is unworthy of participation. It is a spectator sport, the same as boxing is, and a great many people like to see boxing, basketball and horse racing. I happen to be one that enjoys all three and some of the other sports.

Mr. President, I think that we ought to leave this subject in the hands of the Governor of the Commonwealth at this time. He has done exactly what his duties call upon him to do. He has asked the commission to make a report to him immediately. The Commission, as I understand from the newspapers, stepped in and immediately took the only steps that they could take. They rushed this fighter to the hospital; they are getting a report on his condition, on any possible tampering with the orange or any other substance that he may have taken before the fight, and they are also investigating the situation concerning the betting as far as they can. However, if it does not appeal to the Governor as being an up and up answer to this situation and incident that happened Friday night, I am sure that the Governor, in his bold and forthright manner, will close the sport down long enough for the people of Pennsylvania to again have confidence in those who participate in it.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, there is certainly one thing that we can all agree on, and that is that the fighting about this thing in the Senate has lasted longer than the fight which was televised last Friday evening.

Mr. President, I do not think Senator Donolow was listening to our Chaplain today in his prayer, when he opened this Session of the Senate. He said, "This is no time to play politics." Surely, it seems that anything bad which happens in Pennsylvania, there is some Democrat who wants to blame it on the Republicans. The Democrats even wish to fasten some blame on the Republican Administration for the fact that the fighter last Friday night could not come out for the third round.

Mr. President, I believe it was almost two months ago when the Governor said he wanted to—as he said it—clean up boxing in Pennsylvania. The Governor sent over to the Senate some names to be confirmed for the Boxing Commission. Two of the members of the outgoing commission, their terms had expired. One member, as I remember it, was Chairman of the Boxing Commission, Frank Wiener, and his term had not expired. I tried to bring out to the Governor that I thought he should keep Mr. Wiener on until such time, at least, until his term had expired, so that he would be able to acquaint the new men coming in with all of the ramifications which seem to be attached to the boxing game. However, the Governor said, "No." He wanted to make a clean sweep and he swept out Mr. Wiener, too.

I believe that Mr. Wiener would have been able to give the new members of the Boxing Commission, and their employees, much advice and valuable advice on the boxing game. Mr. Wiener, as I remember after the Saxton fight, suspended Mr. Saxton for awhile. There were some fines in connection with it. I believe Mr. Wiener had done a good job and, as evidence of that, he was asked, even after his dismissal, to come to Harrisburg and confer with the Attorney General and others in connection with the boxing game.

Mr. President, for a period of about two months, we have had these new members who have come in. I do not know whether they knew anything about boxing. I remember one fellow, Mr. Crowley, who was an outstanding football player for Notre Dame, and others. Another was Mr. Klein. It was brought out that Mr. Klein was present last Friday night at this affair, and now why any Democratic Senator would stand up and try to fasten the blame on the outgoing Republican Administration for what happened last Friday night certainly stretches my imagination. I just cannot understand why he would make such a statement.

Mr. President, even had we gone along with this resolution that Senator Donolow thinks that we should have, I still do not think it would have made any difference in the boxing picture at Philadelphia.

Certainly, Mr. President, this is not a legislative matter. Under the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Legislature has certain duties and they are, mainly, as to legislation. Then we have the Executive Branch of Government which is supposed to execute the laws which we pass. The Boxing Commission is an arm of that branch, and certainly they should be responsible to the Governor. If they do not do the job or they do their job negligently, then I think the Governor should fire them.

I would say this to Governor Leader and I hope he does it. If Mr. Klein cannot properly explain this thing that happened last Friday night, he should ask Mr. Klein for his resignation and put someone else in who will do the job. Certainly, we are all in favor of having boxing maintained as a clean sport in the State of Pennsylvania, but we do not think that legislative investigation is the answer to that. It needs attention by the Governor and, as Senator Dent brought out this morning at our conference with the Governor, he stated he was going to bring these people in and ask them for an explanation.

I go along with the suggestion that has been made here, that we ask the Secretary of Revenue and anyone else in authority who has jurisdiction over this business, to immediately suspend all professional boxing in the State of Pennsylvania until such time as we can tell the people of Pennsylvania that we have cleaned up this sport, and from now on we can more or less assure them that there will not be any repitition of what happened last Friday night in Philadelphia.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, it seems as though this year is a banner year for me. I did not intend to rise. I always stay silent and listen to my elders.

However, Mr. President, Al Klein's name has been mentioned and I think that my good friend, Senator Mahany, is not acquainted with Al Klein. I have known Al Klein for fifteen or twenty years. He is a lawyer, he is a cracker jack newspaper man and has been connected with different newspapers in the past. He has written for Life Magazine and was a member of the Kefauver Investigating Committee. In fact, he was chief investigator. No one needs to worry; he will certainly investigate this fight.

Mr. President, I only rose to bring this to the attention of the Members of the Senate. Al Klein is a man who is upright, a man of intergrity and he is honest. If he catches anything impure, you can bet that he will do what is supposed to be done.

Mr. President, many of the Members of the Senate have been talking about the fight last Friday night being attributed to this and that. Sometime ago, there was a magistrate who had been convicted of something many years ago. They were trying to get him out of jail. This magistrate was a diabetic, and they gave him plenty of sugar. He went into a coma and the Pardon Board pardoned him. Did it strike you that perhaps it could have been a diabetic coma that this fighter possibly had last Friday night? I thought that Johnson had a diabetic coma. Therefore, I think we should wait and see what the results are and then we can judge.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, you know it seems that we always hear what we want to hear and we do not hear what we do not want to hear. It appears that the leader on the other side, when he called attention to the sermon given to us this afternoon, might have remembered the first part of the sermon when the Chaplain, in his prayer, complained about the fact that he was asked to keep the prayer short.

Mr. President, the Majority Leader might also, in his leisure, read the remarks of Senator Donolow. I did not hear Senator Donolow in any way infer that it was the fault of any political party. The only one who I heard refer to a political party was Senator Watkins, who tried to bring out the fact that the crooked fighting was done under Governor Earle. He had no memory, he said, himself, of any fights under the Republicans that might have been crooked.

Now, Mr. President, I am not interested in whether it is Democrat or Republican. However, I do not want words put into the mouths of the Members of the Democratic Caucus which are not the words they uttered. Senator Donolow started in this Boxing Commission long before this fight, and he has kept it up under Republican and Democratic control.

Mr. President, Mr. Klein was in the dressing room at 8:30 o'clock, according to the newspapers. The fight went on at ten o'clock. You could have passed a whole grove of oranges over to the man in an hour and a half. I do not think that it is fair to say that if Mr. Klein does not have an answer, the Governor should ask for his resignation.

For the information of the Senate, any man here can inquire from the Boxing Commission and they will find what I have found, that the records, the minutes and the books of that commission are in such a bad shape that it will take the new Boxing Commission at least three more months to even straighten out the records as it was, before they start to make a record of their own.

Mr. President, I have stated on the floor of the Senate that every Member of this Senate at any time has a right to say and think what he wants. However, I do not think that Senator Mahany has any right to stand on this floor and try to impress the people of Pennsylvania that the only reason Senator Donolow spoke is because he is trying to blame the Republicans for what happened last Friday night. We are not blaming the Republicans for the condition of the boxing game. The boxing game, itself, is a business that does not recognize any political party. I think that you will find upon the donation lists of both political parties the names of some of those who are identified with the boxing game.

I agree with Senator Watkins that they are not all dishonest, nor did I interpret the remarks of Senator Donolow to say that they are all dishonest. However, I do not say that they are all honest in their intentions because everyone knows, and I think Senator Watkins would be the first to agree with me, that not all horse races are straight. Therefore, not all boxing games, basketball games or any other sport can be considered to be entirely on the level. We have not reached that millenium of human behavior yet where every man does what he is doing simply for the glory of doing it. A great many do and that is the strength of our people, that the majority try to do the honest thing. If we did not have a few dishonest people, you would not need the appropriations for the jails and institutions that we have in Pennsylvania. So, let us face up to the facts; there are some things that are wrong and some things that have to be corrected. Let us give this Boxing Commission a litle opportunity to do it and let us give the Governor an opportunity to have his Boxing Commission do the things that he warned them they would have to do. I am sure that when all the smoke clears away, then we will find a healthier condition existing in the field of boxing in Pennsylvania.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, after listening to Senator Mahany, the only thing I could gather was that Commissioner Klein put the orange in the fighter's bag.

Mr. President, I am reading from an article in the newspaper, written by a Matt Ring Of The Philadelphia Bulletin Sports Staff, in which he quotes Senator Watkins as saying:

"The Senator said he had wanted for some time to conduct such a probe, but was deterred by the fact that another senator, Benjamin R. Donolow, of Philadelphia, was pressing a resolution in the Senate for the creation of a special committee to investigate boxing."

Mr. President, what kind of double talk is that? How is Senator Watkins being deterred by the fact that Senator Donlow had a resolution in to investigate boxing in this State? I just do not understand that type of double talk. I would appreciate it if the gentleman could straighten me out.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I believe that the Members of the Senate should be told that the present Boxing Commissioners are making the greatest strides that have ever been made in Pennsylvania to ferret out anyone who has a criminal record of any kind. They are now requesting that all managers, all fighters and all seconds engaged in the boxing game be finger printed. These finger prints are being processed by the F. B. I., and on that basis I think you will find quite a big change in the boxing game in Pennsylvania.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I would like to answer Senator Barr. I would like to answer so that all the Members can hear it and not just Senator Barr. He sat down when I thought he was going to interrogate me. I see that he sat down and perhaps he intended to talk to me some other time about it. However, I would like to answer him now.

Mr. President, that was no double talk. I did say at the Garden State Race Track, Saturday, that I was in favor of an investigation of boxing. I am, as of this minute, in favor of an investigation of boxing. I am also, as of this minute, in favor of Senator Donolow giving all of this information that he possesses, which he states is so brutal and so crooked and so cruel in this business, to the Attorney General or to the Boxing Commission. I said on Saturday that I intended to do something about this. I intended to make a speech on the floor of the Senate today, before Senator Donolow. However, he beat me to it.

Mr. President, an investigation should be made by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and this Boxing Comission. I say from the floor of this Senate that we should after today, after all the things that have been said here, be entitled to a report and a very quick report.

Mr. President, I like Senator Dent, am not blaming this thing on any political party. I was more or less kidding about the bout under Governor Earle. I said it for the simple reason that I feel as though politics plays no part, neither Republican nor Democrat. I do not charge the Democratic Party with any mismanagement other than those officials who were at the ringside on Friday night. I asked the question why the fight was not stopped and they told me that it was commercial. Regardless of the money that was received by anyone, if a fighter is not in condition to fight he should not be allowed to fight. That is what those officials were paid for.

Mr. President, in no way do I charge Mr. Klein with the responsibility of refereeing that bout. However, he was certainly there and saw that the young fighter was in no condition to go on. I say, without going further, that I am for boxing, I am for basketball, baseball football, horse racing and any form of sport that any man enjoys and I am not for taking it away from him. I say if it is so bad, then let us clean it up.

Mr. President, as far as my good friend Senator Dent, for whom I have the greatest respect, I say to him that I never knew of a crooked horse race. I must defend my sport, too. There perhaps have been crooked horse races, but I knew nothing about them. I know of no crookedness in any man's sport that I could prove, and I certainly will not make charges against boxing or any other sport if I do not have the facts. When I have the facts of crookedness, I will certainly come out in the open and put it in the right place and insist that something be done.

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Watkins.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Watkins, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATKINS. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DONOLOW. Senator Watkins, I get the impression from the words that you have just uttered that you are not interested in an investigation of boxing at this time.

Mr. WATKINS. I am interested in an investigation of boxing, but I am not interested in your resolution.

Mr. DONOLOW. I see. Then do I understand that you are going to get your Committee on Law and Order to investigate boxing, according to the statement you made at Garden State Race Track on Saturday?

Mr. WATKINS. I intend to take up with my committee the business that I think is necessary. After giving careful thought, I do not think my committee is concerned with this.

Mr. DONOLOW. In other words, you are retracting the statement you gave to the press on Saturday, and the fact that you said your Committee on Law and Order will investigate boxing?

Mr. WATKINS. No, I am not retracting any statement.

Mr. DONOLOW. Then your Committee on Law and Order will investigate boxing?

Mr. WATKINS. I would wait and see what Governor Leader does. I think we should wait and see what the commissioners do. When they make their report, it might be a bigger investigation than you are looking for.

Mr. DONOLOW. Then you are amending the statement by saying that you will wait until the Governor issues his report?

Mr. WATKINS. That is my prerogative.

Mr. DONOLOW: I just wanted to know. It is your prerogative, that is right.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SILVERT, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed Senate Bill No. 137, entitled:

An Act amending the act of August 10, 1951 (P. L. 1163), entitled, as amended "An act relating to the orphans' court; conferring exclusive jurisdiction on such courts over the administration and distribution of decedents' estates, trust estates, minors' estates, and absentees' estates; conferring concurrent jurisdiction over the administration and distribution of incompetents' estates and the determination of title to real estate in certain cases; providing for the organization of orphans' courts, the procedure therein, the powers and duties of the judges thereof, and appeals therefrom," conferring on orphans' courts exclusive jurisdiction of all manner of proceedings affecting birth records.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. McPHERSON, Jr., asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. McPHERSON, Jr. Mr. President, on May 1 the Fruit Growers of Adams County had an Apple Blossom Festival. It had the enthusiastic support of everyone and was very successful.

In recognition of that occasion, I am offering the following resolution.

SENATE RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS OF THE SENATE EXTENDED TO THE ADAMS COUNTY FRUIT GROWERS ASSOCIATION ON THE SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF APPLE BLOSSOM WEEKEND

Mr. McPHERSON, Jr., offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 9, 1955.

The biggest apple blossom show in the history of Pennsylvania was recently staged in scenic Adams County by the Adams County Fruit Growers Association.

Under the expert direction of Fremont Kuntz, president of the organization, and presided over by the beautiful young Nancy Tate, Adams County's Apple Blossom Queen, this first organized effort to establish an annual program for the benefit and convenience of the thousands of tourists, who each year swarm to the colorful and picturesque fruit belt of Adams County to view the blossoms, was a tremendous success. An estimated 25,000 tourists viewed the wonderous beauty of the more than half a million apple trees at their peak of blossom.

The members of the Adams County Fruit Growers Association have done an excellent job in publicizing one of the many industries of our Commonwealth, and have made it possible for many more people to view the scenic wonders of Pennsylvania; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the Comonwealth of Pennsylvania extend its congratulations to the Adams County Fruit Growers Association on the successful completion of Apple Blossom Weekend, with the hope for continued success for many years to come; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Adams County Fruit Growers Association, Fremont Kuntz, President, Biglerville, Pennsylvania.

Mr. BARR offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Rules:

In the Senate, May 9, 1955.

The Eastern Orthodox Church is a major faith in America and in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The Eastern Orthodox Church is not generally included among the religious confessions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Where anything is said concerning the major faiths, usually only Protestants, Catholics and Jews are referred to.

It, therefore, follows that a religious distinction is being made against the Eastern Orthodox Church, which is contrary to the prevailing liberal and democratic spirit of our Commonwealth; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Eastern Orthodox Church be recognized as a major faith in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania;

That it be included among the religious confessions of this Commonwealth;

That the forms and official papers of the Commonwealth and local government units which refer to the major faiths and now limit them to Protestants, Catholics and Jews, be changed to: Protestants, Catholics, Eastern Orthodox and Jews; and be it further

GEORGE M. LEADER.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. TOMPKINS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, there appeared in yesterday's Pittsburgh Press under the column "All Outdoors," by Johnny Mock, an article which I thought to be a very unfair attack upon a program which we are trying to initiate in this state.

I wish at this time to answer that column in the form of an open letter which I have written to Mr. Mock.

May 9, 1955.

Mr. Johnny Mock
Pittsburgh Press
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Dear Johnny,

I must take vigorous exception to your article appearing in the May 8 issue of the Press.

You state that the sale of 8,579 acres at $22.50 an acre will return less than $20,000. My mathematics tells me that would amount to $192,927.50. Your mathematics is on a par with that found in the Leader Budget.

As to leasing 44,704 acres for $30,000 per year let's take a look. This will produce about 75 cents per acre per year in Revenue. How much more per acre per year will be produced from the gas and the gas leases on this acreage, I do not know—but I know it will be substantial.

But when we try and obtain an increase from 7½ cents to 10 cents per acre per year payment in lieu of taxes to the counties where the land is located, an awful howl goes up, and we are given the brush-off.

You speak of the $2,734,103.00 derived during the present biennium from gas leases and royalties on state owned lands. I am happy that the state is able to obtain these Revenues. But in the case of forest lands, where does the money go—not to the counties where the land is located—but into the general fund—which in turn is spent to build your Park Points in Pittsburgh, and the Malls in Philadelphia. And yet when we ask for an increase from 7½ cents to 10 cents per acre per year in lieu of taxes—we are given the bums rush with the insinuation that after all we do not have many votes in the counties where the land lays, execpting on election day when they are always happy to know our count.

But the Federal Government on the land it owns in Pennsylvania, the principal tract of which is the Allegheny National Forest, returns to the counties where the land is located, the sum of 25 per cent of the net revenues derived from said lands. I have introduced legislation to accomplish this same purpose in Pennsylvania. Need I tell you the results? You guessed it—not enough votes.

And when we ask for a little 10 or 15 thousand dollar project for stream clearance or channel improvement—do we get it. If there is any money left after Pittsburgh and Philadelphia get theirs—they may consider it at Harrisburg.

We have sought in vain for many years to have recreational areas developed in this region. The answer has always been—we must develop recreation and parks closer to the centers of population. And with whose money? Why that partially derived from the revenues from the forest lands in this region. In ten years all that has been done in this region is the building of a road to Hyner View in Clinton County.

A nice artificial lake came into being on the East Branch of the Clarion River in Elk County, the product of a Federal Flood Control Project, but as to fishing, there is little, if any, because of the mine acid in the water—thanks to the mote in the eyes of the Fish Commission and the Sanitary Water Board.

As to Game Commission lands—we get a few turkeys, grouse and rabbits stocked. When we want food with which to winter the game, we are given but a pittance. The Game Commission and the sportsmen elsewhere in the state seem to think that the natives and local sportsmen should be grateful enough for the hunters that come into the area, for the natives and local sportsmen to contribute their own time and money for the feeding.

As to the fish—I am unaware that any more are now being stocked in the streams of Cameron County than ten years ago. Every year just before fishing season the flags wave and the bands play at headquarters in Harrisburg about the greatest stocking program ever. But when the figures are checked—they are always about the same.

We are not unmindful of the recreational value of 50,000 acres of almost uninhabited land—nor are we unmindful and unappreciative of the hunters, fishermen and campers who come to this area. Over the years they have been the cause of a good deal of commercial activity—and we want them to continue to come and mingle with us and enjoy themselves.

But when you try and make it appear that Dooms Day will arrive if 50,000 acres out of a total of 2,686,663 acres owned by the Forestry Department and Game Commission will be taken out of circulation—I just cannot agree with you.

And when you holler "Land Grab"—thief, thief—I am convinced you are not in possession of all the facts—or you fail to analyze them correctly.

You state—"That the venture will create thousands of jobs for the natives is purely fictional. No doubt, some local help will be employed, but the overall picture will be far from what has been painted."

In this you are wrong and inconsistent. Much native help will be employed in the clearing of the 8,500 acre tract and the building program thereon. Help will be needed for building the access highways, reservoirs for water supply and the utility services into the project.

You are inconsistent when you decry the loss of the camps and the hunter and fisherman. Well, they come in sporadically and seasonly and do spend some money while here. But you seem to forget that the technical personnel coming with the project will have to be housed—and office space will be needed. You also seem to forget that this personnel when once housed will be permanent and not sporadic and seasonal, and that their entire payroll will be spent among us. We gladly and heartily welcome them into our area.

A little more knowledge as to why this particular site was selected might be a valuable aid to your thinking on this subject.

The state didn't seek nor ask this firm to come into Pennsylvania—contrary to the deplorable attempt being made by the present administration to make it appear that way. They are coming into this state, and they selected the site they did for certain specific reasons. It would certainly be a tragic day for this great Commonwealth and especially this area, if this company should be forced to abandon its plans because certain individuals attempt to embroil the project in politics, or because of any furor generated by the sportsmen.

You also seem to forget that what this company will do at the project may one day be the means of saving Pittsburgh and Philadelphia in case of enemy attack.

Cameron County is all for the project.

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, we are planning to meet at 11:00 o'clock daylight time tomorrow for the reason that there will be a Joint Session of the House and Senate for the purpose of honoring Dr. Salk at noon tomorrow, at which time His Excellency, the Governor, will address the House and Senate.

We will not meet next week. We are going to recess on Wednesday of this week until May 23rd. You will recall we had originally intended to meet on Wednesday and Thursday of next week, but we have decided that that is not a good plan and are not going to come back until May 23rd. But I do wish that the Committee Chairmen would schedule their Committee meetings for tomorrow with the idea in mind that we are going into session at 11:00 o'clock.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I want to read to you an excerpt from a very recent news report on business conditions in the United States.

I am now quoting from Time magazine:

> "Last week the United States economy was producing more goods and services than man has ever enjoyed anywhere. When business and government statisticians finished their computations on the first quarter of 1955, they came to an almost unanimous conclusion:
> This will probably be the best year, economically, in United States history. Factories are nearing a record level of production, workers are taking home more wages than before, more corporations are making more profit than ever before. In the first three months of 1955, the United States produced goods and services at the rate of $369 billion a year, a firm indication that the year's total will go beyond 1953's all time record of $365 billion."

Mr. Speaker, what are we doing here in Pennsylvania to share in this expanding prosperity? Have we put out the welcome sign for new businesses, for new jobs? Are we telling the man with a dollar to invest, that Pennsylvania is the place to invest it?

No, this is what we are asking for. We are asking for a new tax on wages, a new tax on salaries, a new tax on small business and professions, a new tax on farmers, a new tax on dividends, a new tax on rents, a new tax on interest and royalties, more taxes on business, more on public utilities, on banks and insurance companies. More taxes for everybody but not a thing to encourage investment, and produce jobs in Pennsylvania.

If the Governor's tax plans ever get through this Legislature, and I can't find anyone except the Governor who is predicting that they will, we will be putting up a sign on every road entering our state "Stay away from Pennsylvania if you don't want to lose your shirt." That will not only apply to industry but it will apply to the working man.

Is that the way for our state to get on the prosperity bandwagon which is sweeping the nation under the wise policies of President Eisenhower and the Republican administration in Washington?

Governor Leader doesn't think so. He is still predicting the gloom and bankruptcy he fed to the voters last year in large doses. Evidently he thinks Pennsylvania is different.

Instead of bigger earnings for business, he expects declining profits.

If you don't believe me, take a look at his own budget. Instead of $225 million from the corporate net income tax, he doesn't expect more than $220 million in the next two years. They are his figures. Business pays this tax on profits, and the Governor by his estimate, is predicting that business will be worse in Pennsylvania in the next two years that it was in the last. They are his figures, not ours.

What about unemployment? Will there be more jobs in the next two years? Well let us again look at the Governor's figures.

Governor Leader doesn't think so. Take a look at his budget. He wants $138 million for public assistance, instead of $120 million expended for relief in the last two years. So according to his figures we are going to have more unemployment in Pennsylvania.

If the Governor does not believe that Pennsylvania will share this prosperity, then he is deliberately trying to fool the people again.

Less profits for business. More people on relief. That is what the Governor says. That is what Governor Leader predicts in Pennsylvania, in face of the greatest national prosperity that this nation has ever known.

It seems to me that Governor Leader has deliberately underestimated tax revenues, and I would like to be very emphatic on that, that he has deliberately underestimated tax revenues and deliberately inflated appropriation requests to provide a political patronage fund for 1956. And I might state that when a deliberate attempt like that is made to bring in more money than we are going to need, that more money comes out of the pockets of the people of Pennsylvania, and he should keep that in mind.

Now let us listen to another quotation from a recent issue of the United States News and World report, and I quote:

> "Buisness is going to be better than ever before, during the year that lies ahead. Right now, in many lines, business activity is breaking records, people are going to have billions more in income than at any time previously. There will be plenty of jobs. Spending will set records that will be many billions higher than for any period in the past. Americans will get a record number of new cars, more new houses than ever, all kinds of gadgets in record or near-record volume. They will do more travelling, enjoy longer vacations, live better than at any time in history."

That is the end of the quote from another world report of a news magazine.

That is a true national picture. But what will it be in Pennsylvania if Governor Leader's tax plan goes through?

Well, evidently Governor Leader knows what it will be, because it will be the gloom and the doom and the bankruptcy he has been predicting for the last year, and is evidently still predicting in his budget. And for once he will be right.

People with money to invest will take one look at Pennsylvania's taxes, and go somewhere else.

They will find out that to do business in Pennsylvania, you will have to pay the highest rate of taxation in the nation.

They will find out that to live in Pennsylvania, and get this, you will have to pay taxes for the privilege of living, working and earning money. Those are the words they use in their tax bill, "the privilege of living and working." They will find out that the tax collector will get it out of their pay envelopes before they ever see it.

They will find out that if you want to own and operate your own farm, you will have to pay double the tax you would pay if you worked for someone else. The same would be true if you opened a gas station, or a corner grocery store, or a little business of any kind.

They will find interest rates are higher, to absorb a new state tax on investment income. They will find rents going up to pay for a new state tax on rents. They will find that Governor Leader's tax collectors will take a big bite out of all dividends, out of all long-term gains.

In a word, they will find that Pennsylvania is a tax collector's paradise, but a mighty poor place in which to start a new business.

Now, I ask you again, what are you up to? Do you really plan to go through with this tax plan or is this just another Frankenstein to drive the people into line for another tax, such as has been intimated in some of the papers?

We all know what a pinch bill is, and I am wondering if this is a pinch bill. If it is, how long are you going to keep up this cruel fakery on the people of Pennsylvania?

I see by the papers over the weekend, that after the hearings on the budget are over in another two or three weeks, you are going to start hearings to find out what the people think of Governor Leader's tax programs. Well, let me say this, you are wasting your effort, and you are wasting our time and the people's time.

You don't have to hold hearings to find that out what the people think. All you have to do is to stop anybody on the street, or read the letters to the editors of any newspaper, and you will find out without any public hearings.

It is true, as the Governor says, that all taxes are unpopular, but this one takes the grand prize for all unpopularity. It doesn't have a real friend anywhere outside of Governor Leader, or Mayor Clark of Philadelphia, and a few others.

If you want to find out how unpopular the tax plan is, bring it out for a vote and see what happens to it on the floor of this House. Bring it out and you will see without your public hearings how popular or unpopular it is.

You wouldn't dare to bring it out. If you did, it would possibly be the worst beaten bill of this session.

The Governor must know you can never pass it, even if we stay here until the snow flies, and spring comes again.

The end of the biennium is right around the corner, and every day that you delay is only going to make matters a lot worse, not better. Every day that goes by, some new business that might have come to Pennsylvania will go somewhere else. Every day some more of this national prosperity will pass us up.

But more than that, and this is rather important to every Member in this House, is it fair to keep the people who will be hurt, and hurt badly, by the Leader tax plan, guessing and worrying unnecessarily?

I would like to read you a letter I received today from a woman in Pittsburgh, and I am quoting:

> From the papers, I read dividends are to be taxed at 5 per cent. I am 76 years old, an amputee, and my only income is $600 per year from dividends. When healthy, able people, earning four or five thousand dollars per year have an exemption of $1,000, it doesn't seem fair that I, who am unable to work should be taxed 5 per cent on $600 per year dividends, which is my only income.
> I worked hard in my younger years to save something for old age, but it doesn't seem fair to discriminate against the aged because they were thrifty.
> I hope you will be able to forestall this terrible injustice.

If you have no intention of passing this tax bill let us tell people like this poor old lady, and let us not keep up this cruel fakery a day longer so that you may bring another tax bill in and use this as a hammer. Let us be honest with the people, even if the Governor refuses to do so.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is quite certain the gentleman from Philadelphia enjoys the minority role so much that I doubt he will ever again contend in behalf of a Republican victory.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I might say, Mr. Speaker, in rebuttal I know that the Speaker does not enjoy the role of being the Speaker and being in the majority role. He has been continually unhappy in his looks, and I understand from his wife he is even losing weight because of it.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, we have just been entertained by another very well written political speech. I would be very much disappointed, I believe, if some week the Minority Floor Leader decides he will not make a political speech on the floor of this House.

He has, of course, every right to voice the views of his Members and his party, but when he speaks about the Governor and his budget over-estimating revenues for the purpose of building up a large surplus, all of which will come out of the pockets of the taxpayers, I would like to remind him that in the 1953 Session his party, in my opinion, deliberately over-estimated the revenues to be derived from the sales tax of one per cent. For what purpose? For the purpose of balancing the budget and leaving a large defiicit for us to take care of if we got elected.

I would also like to remind the gentleman that back in 1951 when his party was in power and should have been financing the needs of this Commonwealth, they saw fit to steal $65 or $60 million from one biennium and move it into the biennium we were about to finance for the purpose of avoiding the imposition of a tax on the people of this Commonwealth.

You were in power for sixteen years in this Commonwealth and you did not adequately finance the needs, the growing needs, of the Commonwealth, and that is why today we have a tax program which I admit is not popular, but which is necessary to take care of the financial needs which you allowed to accumulate.

I do not remember the exact figures, but I believe all but about $110 million of the Governor's proposed budget is required to be raised because you did not do the job in the past. Had you passed an adequate tax measure, or measures in past sessions we would not be in this financial dilemma we are in today.

If you want to talk about the people who will be hurt in some way by this income tax law, that is your privilege, but I believe that when the people of Pennsylvania understand fully why this money is necessary and that this is a good tax program we are proposing, they will be on our side and no political speeches you make will change that.

The SPEAKER. Round two. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, dressed in white, wearing a happy smile in the far corner at the Speaker's left.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, that is a sign of purity. That is just to prove to the Democrats that we are not all the Majority Leader says we are.

I think you are going to find the Majority Leader is entirely wrong in his statement when he says we under-estimated the sales tax. I think you will find by the time the biennium has closed and the books balanced on the old method—not the new method which the Governor promised, because we did not get into that, but if we balance the books on the old method, the way it has been done for years, I think you will find that we will be a very, very little bit short. In fact, we possibly would hit it within $1 or $2 million. It is rather difficult to prove that now, but I am sure that we will be here when the biennium closes and, if the financial jugglers in the Budget office do not distort the figures, I think you will find it will be within our estimates.

When the gentleman accuses us of "stealing" $60 million, that is a horrible word to use. He knows, and I know, and you know, and a lot of us know, it was one of the best ideas I ever had to accelerate the corporate net income tax. We did not steal it, all we did was move it up where it should have been in the first place. Just because we made a mistake is no reason why we should not admit it. We made a mistake long ago, exactly the same way as your Budget office just made a mistake of $7 million, and they were honest to admit it. Of course, that $7 million mistake was almost a $15 million mistake, if you put it on the same basis the Majority Leader has been talking of putting it in the last biennium and then moving it up to this biennium. So they were honest, they made a mistake of $15 million. But, after all, Mr. Speaker, what is a $15 million mistake, if it comes out of nobody's pockets but the taxpayers. That is the way they evidently feel about it, so to make a $7 million mistake in the Budget office is not anything unusual.

I think you will find, if they do not make another mistake, that we will bring in very close to $130 or $135 million on our sales tax.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR FELLOWSHIP GROUP OF GRACE METHODIST CHURCH WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the Hall of the House a delegation of the Intermediate and Senior Fellowship Group of Grace Methodist Church, Harrisburg, Dauphin County. They are here under the supervision of Miss Mary Louise Heckman. They are the guests of the gentlemen from Dauphin and Cumberland Counties.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, this bill was debated at great length last week and I do not intend to take much time discussing it today.

I happen to know that the gentleman from Philadelphia, the sponsor, has brought some flares with him and I had hoped he would take the floor first and perhaps shed a little more light on this bill for my benefit. Since he has seen fit not to do so, I will have to make my remarks without the benefit of the demonstration of the flares.

Whatever the gentleman might say about the cost, and so forth, I will be very happy to hear, as I know you will be.

I am still opposed to the bill. I think it is wonderful that someone is willing to go to a store and buy flares for his own use for this purpose, but I am unwilling to say by law you must do this thing. I admit some lives may be lost, some people may be injured, if they have a breakdown on the highway at night and have no way of moving their vehicle off to the side, but I still say it is a matter of degree. To make five or six million passenger car owners buy these devices because one person might lose his life, in my opinion, is not wise legislation.

I am still going to vote against this bill.

Mr. AMARANDO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to enlighten our good friend, Mr. Readinger, on several points.

No. 1. he does not think it is necessary that we enact laws to protect the people of Pennsylvania.

The SPEAKER. Does the Chair understand the gentleman from Philadelphia desires to give some sort of demonstration on the floor of the House?

Mr. AMARANDO. No, sir, Mr. Speaker.

If Mr. Readinger will refer to the Motor Vehicle Code, I believe it is compulsory that we have tail lights on the rear of an automobile, that we have a rear view mirror to see what is behind us, and all of a hundred and one other safety gadgets that are compulsory to have on an automobile.

Last week Mr. Readinger said flares would be an expense to the operator of an automobile. I went around shopping this past weekend and I find that you can buy a flare that has been approved by the Bureau of Highway Safety for twelve cents. This flare will remain lit from forty to forty-eight minutes, and it can be used many times. This bill requires that three flares be carried, and if thirty-six cents is too expensive to save someone's life, I am sorry I disagreed with Mr. Readinger.

I have a whole carton of flares and reflectors here, but we won't go into that, I know some of the members have testimonial dinners to attend tonight. So consider your own life in voting for this bill, and, if you feel as though we can save somebody's life, thank you.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Senate Bills for concurrence Nos. 95 and 274.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to take up the time of the House, but I have run across an article in the paper that I think should be brought to the attention of the House and, therefore, I beg your indulgence for just one moment.

The SPEAKER. In what degree is the matter a question of personal privilege to the gentleman from Philadelphia?

Mr. McCORMACK. If the Speaker will bear with me for about ten seconds I think he will hear and know the matter of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. McCORMACK. In going through my mail today I came across this paper, the Observer, which is delivered to each Member of the House, I believe, individually. It purports to be the journal of the Pennsylvania Liquor industry.

There is a column in this paper, a weekly by-line column entitled "Reporter-at-large," and the column discusses recent legislation concerning the referendum on the Blue Laws, and also legalized race tracks.

Am I correct, Mr. Speaker, in bringing this up under a point of personal privilege?

The SPEAKER. Not unless the gentleman's name is mentioned in the article.

Mr. McCORMACK. As a Member of the House—

The SPEAKER. On a question of personal privilege it must be a personal matter. If the gentleman desires to make a general statement, he may ask for the privilege of making a general statement. But unless the gentleman's name is mentioned it is not a question of personal privilege.

Mr. McCORMACK. Then I withdraw my request to rise to a question of personal privilege, and ask permission to make a general statement.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. McCORMACK asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, this as I said, pertains to the recent House Bill on legalized horse racing, and the referendum on the present blue laws.

It goes on to state the reasons why he does not approve of the negative vote in the House, which is quite all right. Everyone is entitled to his opinion with respect to the laws of the state. But I think this particular reporter exceeded all bounds of propriety when he paralleled the refusal of our Legislature to give the people of Philadelphia the right to vote on the referendum with the workings of countries behind the Iron Curtain.

I would like to quote for just one moment so that the House will appreciate more fully my remarks. I quote the second paragraph.

> Being severely critical of such an audacious display of untoward cowardice and totalitarian disregard for the very tenets upon which this country was founded, may cause some people to regard these musings as communistically inspired.

I just glanced over this. I didn't have too much time, Mr. Speaker, to fully go through it, and therefore I ask you to bear with me.

I quote this other paragraph which is more apropos to the statement paralleling the workings of Iron Curtain countries.

> From the dribblings of information leaking out of countries behind the Iron Curtain, we are led to believe that governmental bigwigs are supreme counsellors who can do no wrong. They wield extraordinary power with the proletariat being just so many stepping stones. The people are denied the right of franchise except for those things the ruling class permit for balloting purposes. What a strange similarity. What an unequivocal parallel has been exhibited by noble solons. We vehemently condemn these municipal malpractices abroad and propagandize their evil effects while condoning identical preversities at home.

Now, this particular columnist always closes his column with a bit of verse, and the verse with which he closes this day's column I would like to quote:

> "Despicable cads are Legislative lads
> Who deprive the public of a vote.
> They crawl into bed with the communist red
> Using ethics we don't care to quote."

Now, Mr. Speaker, perhaps there is humor in that but I fail to see it. I personally am in favor of giving the people of Philadelphia the right to vote on the referendum and decide whether they want the Blue Laws repealed, and I certain think this reporter should be criticised. I think he stands in contempt of this House, when he refers to those who voted negatively as being similar to communists. That is all.

SENATE

TUESDAY, May 10, 1955

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain ,Rev. JOHN B. WILLIAMS, Pastor of the Second Baptist Church, Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Creator of all that is on earth, give us faith in the words which Thou hast given us regarding Thy compassion, Thy grace and Thy love. We read Thy words, but they do not enter into our understanding and we go on as if we had not read Thy word nor had we received Thy love. Thy grace is for all Thy creatures. We need only to accept that which Thou hast placed for our taking. Help us to understand this so we may repent for our wrong doing, our neglect of Thee and our carelessness of that which is eternal.

Heavenly Father, we pray that Thou shalt teach us that we may increase in our dependence upon Thee and upon Thy love, so we may learn to humble ourselves and learn to express our faith in true trust.

There are times when we experience a divine lifting of our spirits so that we know our origin in Thee. Then, through neglect, our spirits sink again and we become doubtful and fearful. The love of Jesus Christ has made possible a new birth, a new hope and a new life. Help us to attain this in Thy name. Amen.

JOINT COMMITTEE TO MAKE A STUDY OF THE TAXES AND OTHER PROBLEMS AFFECTING SMALL BUSINESSES

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. SEYLER, WATKINS and WEINER offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Rules:

In the Senate, May 10, 1955.

The opportunity which our Nation offers for a person to freely engage in a small business enterprise is one of our most important beckoning features to those on foreign shores. It is a feature of our society of which we are justly proud, for small businesses have been highly important in the establishment and development of our Nation.

Mergers, consolidations and other jointures have in recent years produced business giants, capable of doing greater volumes of business at far less expense, and as a result thereof, small businesses are badly in need of assistance. Because of the importance of small businesses to our economy and general welfare, it is our duty to insure their survival.

An equitable share of the Commonwealth's business and contracts should be allotted among our small businesses as often as possible. The establishment of a loan procedure should also be considered to encourage the establishment of new businesses and the continuance of existing small businesses. There is also a possibility that the present rates of taxation imposed upon our small businesses are too great; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint three members of the House, and the Governor appoint five men from small businesses, who together shall constitute a committee to make a thorough study of the taxes and other problems faced by small businesses within our Commonwealth; and be it further which was returned from the House of Representatives with amendments.

Said amendments having been twice read, and printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

SENATE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE BILL No. 155.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do concur in the amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 155.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HAYS. Mr. President, this fall counties will elect boards of county commissioners. These commissioners have it within their power to deny or carry out this particular act. Unfortunately some counties have had commissioners who have almost openly flaunted this law. We should have legislation that would permit conscientious commissioners adequate time to do a satisfactory job, but the law also should carry a sufficient prod to compel reasonable action to be taken.

Mr. President, this is not a political matter. This is a matter of economy in government. Many government bodies have extensive capital outlay projects ahead of them. These generally call for the borrowing of money, the issuance of bonds. The present assessments condition may lead to exorbitant interest rates.

As I am sure we all are aware, Mr. President, the Commonwealth needs a half a billion dollars in new school construction in the very near future. Every hour, night and day, seven days a week, fifty-two weeks a year, about twenty-seven children are being born in this Commonwealth. Twenty-seven children almost means one class room each hour, and this has been going on at this rate for almost a decade. School rooms must be provided and we need to use all our financial resources to put into buildings and not into higher interest rates as will be true in many counties if commissioners do not take action.

Mr. President, I could support this bill whole-heartedly if there were some automatic provision that compelled initial steps to be taken and not rely on school boards or road supervisors to do the prodding. This is needed by the children who need the rooms now and who will be paying the bill twenty, thirty, forty years from now. These children cannot afford the luxury of an indifferent board of county commissioners.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

(During the calling of the roll, the following occurred:)

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from York will be so recorded.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "aye."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Beaver will be so recorded.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—29

Barr,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Stevenson,
Berger,	Harney,	McGinnis,	Taylor,
Blass,	Kessler,	McMenamin,	Toole,
Dent,	Kopriver, Jr.,	Miller,	Van Sant,
Diehm,	Madigan,	Ruth,	Wade,
Flack,	Mahany,	Scott,	Wagner,
Fleming,	Mallery,	Silvert,	Watkins,
			Yosko,

NAYS—6

Camiel,	Hays,	Schmidt,	Seyler,
	Holland,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye," the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I voted "aye" with the understanding that in the future I will not vote for another extension.

And said bill having been read at length the third time andand agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, Senate Bill No. 275, Printer's No. 68, together with Senate Bill No. 277, make up the County Code. There are some amendments that are desirable and requested in this bill. However, this is a large, thick volume and the cost of printing this bill would amount to several thousand dollars.

Mr. President, we know that the House will have, in this important piece of legislation, changes that they suggest. Together with the chairman of the committee who introduced the bill, or rather drafted it, Senator Stevenson, we have come to an agreement with the House leaders that we will pass the bill as it now is and when it gets over to the House in cooperation with the House committee and the House leadership, the suggested amendments which have been offered by some of the Members of the Senate will be taken up at that time and we can thereby, at least, save the cost of one printing of this bill which, as I said before, will amount to several thousand dollars.

Therefore, Mr. President, we desire that the bill be passed at this time.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

The section was agreed to as amended.

The third, fourth, fifth, and sixth sections and title were read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I want to comment in relation to Senate Bill No. 339, Printer's No. 92. A short time ago the Republican Senators had a Caucus to discuss all of these bills from Senate Bill No. 336 through Senate Bill No. 339. There was some inclination on the part of a few of the Senators to insist that the center core, which is being conveyed to the Curtiss-Wright Company, have excepted from it the mineral rights under this 8500 acre-piece. In other words, we would not convey the mineral rights under this particular piece, but we would not insist that we would have the right to mine for oil, gas or minerals. We did want to protect our rights there inasmuch as we were selling this piece of land for a comparatively small amount of money and we thought that it would be well to protect our rights to any oil, gas or minerals which might be found thereunder.

However, a representative of the company, who came to the Caucus, explained that their company would not be interested in taking this piece of land unless they could have a fee simple title to the 8500 acre-piece, being the center core of th whole tract. He also said that they had gone along with the State in relation to the other part, which represented about four times as much as the center core in acreage, and that his company had allowed the State to reserve the oil, gas and mineral rights under the land. However, upon reading the amendment which Senator Dent put in yesterday, to the effect that the State will not be allowed to mine for oil, gas and minerals under this piece of land for at least one hundred years, the representative of the company now feels they would be interested.

Mr. President, in weighing the advantages and disadvantages of this proposition, we thought in view of the advantages in relation to employment in this area and of the chance of Pennsylvania obtaining an outstanding industry in the State, and that is certainly what we all are looking for, both the Democrat and the Republican, that we would go along with this inasmuch as the representative of the company said that unless they could have this center core in fee, they would not be interested in coming into the State.

Therefore, Mr. President, so as to make the records clear, the Majority of the Republican Senators are going along with this bill and are going to vote for it tomorrow on Third Reading, although we would have perhaps preferred to have reserved the oil, gas and minerals had it been possible.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in order that there be a definite understanding as to the situation as it now exists and as it has existed, I tried to appraise the Majority Leadership of the situation as to the mineral rights, because in conversation with the representatives of the Curtiss-Wright Company and with the Attorney General's Office, I was informed that unless we gave up the demand, which we also were making on this side, that the mineral rights be retained by the State in the center core area, this would be impossible because the company must have a fee simple title for two reasons. One reason, of course, is that they are spending millions of dollars on road improvements and millions of dollars in capital expenditure and construction and, second, the fact that they may be in a position later to receive some Federal contracts and, in so doing, the Federal Government would naturally demand that any capital expenditures that they would make must be made upon land held under a fee simple title.

Mr. President, I am sure that all of us are happy at this moment that the Republican Caucus has finally decided it is the best to go along under these circumstances, rather than to lose the proposition altogether.

I hope that tomorrow enough of the Members of the Senate will make it their business to be here in order that we may expedite this matter; get it into the hands of the House committee so that they, too, will have time to digest this legislation and study it during the week of furlough, which we will have next week, and when we come back on the 23rd we can get this legislation through the books the week of the 23rd.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

PRAYER

The Reverend MAYNARD S. BARNHART, JR., Pastor of the Spry Lutheran Parish, York, guest Chaplain, offered the following prayer:

God of our fathers, who holds eternal truths for us to apply to our times; give unto us the servants of the people the deep desire to serve Thee. Show us how Thou has inspired great men and great deeds in the past. Remind us that Thou are the same God that the founders of this great Commonwealth worshiped.

Remind us that Thou are always available to help us do the right, to give strength of will to be the servants of all mankind. Remind us that "Whatsoever we do unto the least of these thy brethren, so we do unto Thee."

Keep us aware that we are not called to fill the shoes of any one who walked in the past but to fill our own place of responsibility to the problems of our time, to the plight of our people, that in the future we may take our places among those who served with righteousness. Amen.

It is tragic that many persons traveling in Pennsylvania are unaware that near Titusville a man drilled the first oil well in the world, thereby opening the door for the development of the oil industry which has played a great part in the progress of this great Commonwealth.

It is fitting and appropriate that legislative recognition be accorded Colonel Edwin L. Drake for his drilling the first oil well, therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That State Highway Route No. 36 between the Borough of Pleasantville in Venango County and the City of Altoona in Blair County, be dedicated as a memorial to Colonel Edwin L. Drake and that this portion of the highway be known as the "Colonel Drake Highway," and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Highways shall erect along the highway suitable tablets and markers and shall carry out suitable landscape development to perpetuate this resolution but shall not replace the officially designated route number of the highway hereby designated as the "Colonel Drake Highway."

By Mr. ZEIGLER. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 74.

In the House of Representatives, May 9, 1955.

The City of Harrisburg is faced with a serious shortage of parking facilities in the downtown area. This situation is worsened by the fact that many State employes find it necessary to park on city streets because of the lack of parking facilities at the Capitol.

Many State employes live long distances from the Capitol and others live in areas not served by bus companies, and it is essential for them to use their automobiles to travel to and from work. It is, therefore, the duty of the Commonwealth to provide for sufficient parking facilities for these employes, and the City of Harrisburg should not be required to suffer because of the neglect of this duty; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania undertake a program to provide adequate parking facilities for the employes of the State Capitol; and be it further

Resolved, That when the Commonwealth erects new buildings in the area which is now used for parking, it shall provide for additional parking areas to complement this loss of available parking space.

By Mr. BONNER. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 75.

In the House of Representatives, May 9, 1955.

Jim Thorpe, Carlisle Indian athlete, was selected by the sportswriters of the United States as the greatest athlete of the first half of the 20th century.

For being crowned champion in both the pentathlon and decathlon, Gustav, King of Sweden, in presenting him with a bronze bust, said "You are the greatest athlete in the world." Nicholas, Czar of All Russia, likewise presented him with a Viking ship made of silver and studded with priceless gems.

These gifts and awards were denied to Jim Thorpe by the Olympic Committee who declared him ineligible for violating the amateur rules for playing professional baseball in a minor league for a small stipend, not knowing he was violating these rules.

The Olympic Committee has now ruled that the playing of professional baseball such as indulged in by Jim Thorpe is not now considered as a violation of amateur rules; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the President and the Congress of the United States to use their influence to secure the return of the Olympic awards, medals and prizes given to Thorpe and then denied him for being crowned pentathlon and decathlon champion so that they may be placed in the Jim Thorpe Memorial Monument to be erected in the Pennsylvania town which bears his name; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each house of Congress of the United States, to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States and to the President of the United States.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR GEORGE M. LEADER

Mr. Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Speaker, Members of the General Assembly:

The gratitude the world will rightly feel toward Dr. Jonas E. Salk throughout the entire future human span is something difficult to express in a few minutes.

Since the announcement, two years ago, that a young scientist out at the University of Pittsburgh very likely had the answer to polio, parents everywhere have mentally crossed their fingers and prayed. They have looked at their children in anxiety and hope—fearful that the affirmation might not come soon enough—heartened that it was, God willing, on the way.

As a parent, I am humbly thankful to Dr. Jonas E. Salk today. As Governor of Pennsylvania, I am proud to pay him tribute.

I know that I do not, in any respect, take away from Doctor Salk's genius when I stress that the anti-polio vaccine is, actually, the product of many men and many forces. Hundreds of thousands of children would not yet be baring their arms to a needle had it not been for a mass effort unprecedented in medical history.

Doctor Salk was the first to point out that the anti-polio vaccine is the culmination of long years of investigating by scienists in laboratories around the world. He was the first to point out that every penny that went into his work came directly from the American people through their "March of Dimes" contributions. He was the first to recognize that the effectiveness of the vaccine could never have been demonstrated so rapidly without the field resources of public health agencies and the efforts of a vast army of public health workers. And, most of all, he was the first to laud the "scientific spirit" of people who, most likely, never saw the inside of a laboratory—the parents who, in remarkable faith, committed their children to the unknown.

Polio has maimed and killed the human race for many centuries. The Bible refers to cases of paralysis that very possibly were caused by polio. A 3,000-year-old Egyptian tablet portrays a man whose leg appears to have been crippled by polio. Since that time, many scientific studies, many scientific failures, and many scientific successes have made possible the victory of Jonas Salk. I would not be paying proper tribute to Jonas Salk if I did not respect the acknowledgment he has scrupulously given to his predecessors in polio investigation.

One of those predecessors, Dr. John F. Enders, who along with two Harvard colleagues won the Nobel Prize for the discovery that polio virus can be grown in cultures of non-nervous tissues in test tubes, once quoted a famous bacteriologist, Dr. Hans Zinsser, to explain how he had succeeded where others had failed. Only a portion of that quotation was reprinted in the popular press, and, because I feel it is particularly apropos to the triumph we honor today, I should like to repeat Doctor Zinsser's words:

"It is an erroneous impression, fostered by sensational popular biography, that cientific discovery is often made by inspiration—a sort of thunder clap—from on high. This is rarely the case. Even Archimedes' sudden inspiration in the bathtub; Newton's experience in the apple orchard; Descartes' geometrical discoveries in his bed; Darwin's flash of lucidity on reading a passage in Malthus; Kekule's vision of the closed carbon ring which came to him on top of a London bus; and Einstein's brilliant solution of the Michelson puzzle in the patent office in Berne, were not messages out of the blue. They were the final co-ordinations, by minds of genius, of innumerable accumulated facts and impressions which lesser men could grasp only in their uncorrelated isolation, but which—by them—were seen in entirety and integrated into general principles.

"The scientist takes off from the observations of predecessors, and shows his intelligence, if any, by his ability to dicriminate between the important and the negligible, by selecting here and there the significant stepping-stones that will lead across the difficulties to new understanding. The one who places the last stone and steps across to accomplish discovery gets all the credit. Only the initiated know and honor those whose patient integrity and devotion to exact observation have made the last step possible"

Dr. Jonas Salk, is ,of course, getting a full measure of the credit for the anti-polio vaccine, and, from our laymen's point of view, very rightly so. It is testimony to the man's integrity that he insists on placing himself in the category of one more scientist still in search of the "last stone." But we who need no longer dread the summer; we who can look with untroubled eyes at the straight bodies of our children, rejoice and call deliverance by its name, "The Salk Vaccine."

The success of that vaccine is a giant step forward in the comparatively recent field of preventive medicine. More progress has been made in the health sciences in the first half of this century than in all the ages of human history and human misery.

The unseen revolution of our time rivals the mechanical wonders which so engage the public imagination—for the unseen revolution involves that most intricate of machines, the human body. Our life expectancy has been increased by twenty years since 1900, adding enormously to the productivity—and, we must admit, the problems—of our country.

Those additional twenty years of human life have been the gift of preventive medicine. They represent not only the triumphs of the test tube, but, also, the more prosaic business of public-health agencies as carried out in supervision of food and water supplies, promotion of better sanitation facilities, provision of health information, control of insects and rodents, and support of scientific research.

It remains for posterity to determine how many more years will be added to the life span because a Pennsylvania scientist turned polio virus into polio vaccine. It should be clear to us now that without the cooperation of public-health agencies the dark and fearful curtain shrouding polio for centuries could not have been lifted.

Pennsylvania is this year celebrating the Golden Anniversary of its State Health Department. The whole concept of public health agencies as instruments of preventive medicine is less than a hundred years old. We have, actually, only begun to realize that a measure of the greatness of a nation or a state is the way it takes care of its people. We have only begun to acknowledge that the spending of time, money, and effort to prevent disease is an even higher service than curing a disease after it has struck.

I am proud that the Pennsylvania Health Department's fiftieth anniversary coincides with the affirmation of the Salk Polio Vaccine. Many of our public health nurses, therapists, physicians, and other workers had a role in that affirmation. For the way in which the effectiveness of the vaccine was demonstrated entailed the field resources of public health agencies on a scale never before realized.

The astounding way in which the public responded to the field trials, the intelligence of laymen who, by permitting their children to take part, displayed a real understanding of why the tests were necessary, is very much to the credit of the educational groundwork laid by public health workers.

The success of the Salk Polio Vaccine is testimony to the fact that today the major steps in the health sciences must involve us all. No longer is scientific discovery a matter of a lone man working in the isolation that hampers and slows progress. The great men of the past might well have startled the world sooner had they been given the help of the world they sought to cure.

The success of the Salk Polio Vaccine is testimony, too, that science must have a free, a nonpartisan climate. The instance of Galileo, twice forced publicly to recant theories he privately worked to prove, is a tragic illustration of a world stabbing itself with its own prejudices. Science today must not suffer prejudices, must not be subjected to political or private expediencies.

The highest honor we, as representatives of government, can pay Jonas Salk is to keep politics out of our own concerns in the business of preventive medicine and public health. When matters involving State health services come to our attention, we must scrutinize them as a scientist would.

When what is good for the people happens not to coincide with what is good for politics, we must choose the good of the people. We cannot be men of conscience if we do less.

Doctor Salk, as Governor, I humbly present to you the Pennsylvania Meritorious Medal. It is a token of the gratitude and pride all Pennsylvanians, as well as all humanity, feel towards you, your devotion, and your achievement.

I should like to have the Clerk of this Session read the official citation which accompanies the Medal.

OFFICIAL CITATION

The CHIEF CLERK (Honorable Benjamin L. Long) read the Official Citation accompanying the Pennsylvania Meritorious Medal as follows:

IN THE NAME AND BY AUTHORITY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, Pa.

DOCTOR JONAS EDWARD SALK
Is Hereby Awarded
THE PENNSYLVANIA MERITORIOUS MEDAL

Few are the fortunate generations of mankind in whose span occur those truly great liberating events of genuine human progress that contribute immeasurably to the well-being of life among mankind and which are the splendid fruits of human resolution and intelligence.

A people's advancement toward the better life, either spiritually or physically, whether by a new concept of government, of human science, of human relations, or of a mastery of disease, are most frequently products of the insight and genius, industry and determination, of a single man. Utilizing generations of countless efforts and futile trials, he finally resolves a perennial problem with a solution truly definitive in design. Such a man makes vision, the virtue of his life and insight, the strength of progress, arousing in his fellow human beings supreme confidence in man's ultimate ability to surmount the ageless problems of environment and of circumstance.

We honor such a man today in the name of a profoundly thankful generation and of succeeding generations, who forever shall remain the grateful recipients of the tremendous medical and scientific discovery that is the product of the genius and integrity possessed by a fellow Pennsylvanian, the distinguished physician, Dr. Jonas Edward Salk of the University of Pittsburgh

Doctor Salk's achievement is meritorious service of the higest magnitude and dimension for the Commonwealth, the Country, and mankind. Any tribute a grateful Commonwealth may tender can but serve as a feeble symbol of the heartfelt esteem in which the entire American people hold Doctor Salk as a great historic medical innovator whose career of accomplishment shall ceaselessly transform the lives of his fellow men for ages yet to come.

Now, Therefore, I, George M. Leader, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for my fellow citizens and for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do confer upon Dr. Jonas Edward Salk the Pennsylvania Meritorious Medal in token of the profound and heartfelt appreciation of his fellow citizens for the great blessing that he has introduced into the lives of his fellow human beings. We hold ourselves in the bonds of eternal gratitude linked to the life and career of this humble and great scientist whose genius affords the human race another powerful instrument to achieve the promise of the physical good life for all humanity, and whose presence and career in Pennsylvania adds undying Laurels to the traditions of science in the Commonwealth.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at the City of Harrisburg, this tenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five, and of the Commonwealth the one hundred and seventy-ninth.

(Signed) GEORGE M. LEADER
Governor

BY THE GOVERNOR:

(Signed) JAMES A. FINNEGAN
Secretary of the Commonwealth

GOVERNOR LEADER. Lieutenant-Governor Furman, Speaker Andrews, ladies and gentlemen of the General Assembly, Dr. Jonas E. Salk.

ADDRESS BY DR. JONAS E. SALK

DR. JONAS E. SALK. Governor Leader: When you sent me your message and informed me that this event would take place, you had your own reasons for wishing to acknowledge the work with which I have been associated. But I would like to tell you what this means to me.

What I have to say to you and to our legislators who have honored what we have tried to do, has meaning not only among us in this Commonwealth, but has meaning in any state, and, in fact, in any and all places where there are people who wish to devote themselves to the constructive pursuits of life—for health, which is first, and only after which can come happiness and peace of mind for the creative expressions that are uniquely within the capacity of the mind of man.

That which was provided for my staff and myself, was the opportunity afforded by the University of Pittsburgh and by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that has helped in its support—and as you well know, by the support of the people through the National Fundation for Infantile Paralysis. The opportunity to work and the opportunity to participate—among men of good will—to do for each other what each cannot do for himself, has allowed us to do what we could and to know the feeling of trust and faith for which we are indeed grateful.

In an environment such as we have enjoyed, I know in full measure the satisfaction of working with freedom and without stifling restrictions—whether these be moral, administrative, or material.

These are the elements we wish to acknowledge in accepting this expression of your regard for what you have helped us do.

The LIEUTENANT-GOVENOR. Governor Leader, the Members of the General Assembly thank you for your message.

Doctor Salk we have been highly honored by your presence here today. We salute you and we congratulate you; we hope that you go on to higher attainments.

The Committee on the part of the Senate and the House will escort His Excellency, the Governor, and Doctor Salk to the Governor's Chambers.

The business for which the Joint Session of the General Assembly was convened having been completed, the Chair declares the Joint Session adjourned.

The Senators will reassemble at 3:00 o'clock in the Senate chamber.

The Chair now turns the gavel over to the Speaker of the House, the Honorable Hiram G. Andrews.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the Lieutenant Governor for presiding so ably over the Joint Session.

JOINT SESSION PROCEEDINGS PRINTED IN LEGISLATURE JOURNAL

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the proceedings of the Joint Session of the Senate and House of Representatives held this day be printed in full in the Legislative Journal.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. AMARANDO. Mr. Speaker, this bill that we are about to vote on pertains to the people of the City of Philadelphia. I would have liked very much to have made this a local option bill for the entire state of Pennsylvania. I do not believe we are ready for that at this time, and for that reason, I am insisting that the bill be voted upon in its present state.

The same Legislature gave the people of Philadelphia a chance to rule themselves by passing on the City Charter. The people of Philadelphia voted at that time and they adopted the City Charter. All we intend to do by this bill is let the people continue to speak for themselves in Philadelphia and let them have whatever sports they may, come the Sabbath day.

I do believe religion is most important in our lives, but I also believe that after an individual has fulfilled his religious responsibilities on a Sunday he should be free to go out and indulge in whatever sport he may choose.

For this reason, and only this reason, I ask that the Members of this House continue the American way of doing things by giving the people of Philadelphia a chance to make their own decision.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, on page 9 of today's calendar, House Bill No. 279, printer's No. 252, as I understand was taken up and voted upon by the House, was it not?

The SPEAKER. That is right.

Mr. PETROSKY. May I ask, as a question of information, Mr. Speaker, as to how I was recorded as voting?

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman vote?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I was not in the Hall of the House. Originally I had intended to debate this measure.

The SPEAKER. In that event the gentleman is not recorded as voting.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. PETROSKY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I had intimated my intention of debating House Bill No. 279, Printer's No. 252, which appears on page 9 of today's calendar under Bills on Final Passage.

Of course, at all times in the past this courtesy has been extended to Members who are absent from the House on legislative business.

I would like the record to show that I fully intended to debate this measure on the floor. I was detained in the Governor's offices discussing matters pertinent to legislation now pending and procedures that I will have to move on in the near future. Had I been on the floor of the House, I would have debated the measure and debated in opposition to the same. I wish the record to show that.

It is with extreme pleasure that we welcome the Honorable Evelyn Glazier Henzel, a new member to our midst, and rejoice with her on the anniversary of her birthday.

Mrs. Henzel, though young in years, has attained an honor few women of Pennsylvania have enjoyed, by being chosen by the people of Montgomery County as a representative in the Pennsylvania Legislature. Well known as a civic leader in her community, Evelyn Glazier Henzel has successfully combined the admirable features of being a devoted housewife and mother, and yet striving to serve her fellow man; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby extends its congratulations to Mrs. Henzel on the celebration of her birthday, and extends its best wishes for abundant health and happiness in the years ahead, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House transmit a copy of this resolution to the Honorable Evelyn Blazier Henzel, 414 Keswick Avenue, Glenside, Pennsylvania.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, early in the Session of this Legislature, we passed an act known as the Reorganization Act, House Bill No. 1. Under that act, the Governor was empowered to set into motion the machinery for reorganization of certain functions of government.

Today, Mr. President, I am happy to present to the Senate a resolution covering Plan No. 1 of 1955, dealing with a plan of reorganization in the Department of Commerce. Stated briefly, in order that the Members of the Senate may be acquainted with the contents, the administrative body of government here in Harrisburg, in looking into the functions of the State Planning Commission or what was formerly known as the State Planning Commission, has discovered that some twenty odd years ago, in fact, to be factual it was nineteen years ago, we created in the Commonwealth a State Planning Commission. This Planning Commission, for the first four years of its existence, aided a great deal in the development of industrial expansion, and the enticement of new industries into this Commonwealth.

However, Mr. President, in 1939, the commission was changed to a bureau and placed under the Department of Commerce. From that time until this present day, it has been acting as a bureau and new functions were given to the bureau. Its duties were changed a great deal. The original idea behind the creation of a planning commission was exactly what the name implies, planning for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, its industrial, mining and mineral expansion. During the sixteen years that it has been set up as a bureau, it has been under the direct control of the Department of Commerce. It lost its independence of action, its freedom of movement. In fact, it lost its entire identity.

Mr. President, the first plan of reorganization that Governor Leader has submitted to this Senate and House of Representatives calls for a re-creation of the State Planning Commission as such. The second phase of the reorganization takes from the State Planning Commission, or the State Planning Bureau, certain functions relative to redevelopment and planning, and puts it where it belongs, in the Department of Commerce. It will be made up of fifteen members who will not be permitted, during their term of office, to hold any other State office. They will be selected from the men and women in Pennsylvania who by training and inclination are prepared to take on this important work. There will be three department heads, consisting of the Department of Forests and Waters, Department of Highways and the Department of Commerce, who will act as ex officio members. They will report directly to the Governor, placing the responsibility where it belongs, in the hands of the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth.

Mr. President, the Governor believes that this particular plan will give to Pennsylvania a hard hitting planning commission that will be able to compete, as it were, with the promotional departments of other States of the Union. We all realize that there has grown up between the States a great rivalry in the search for new and expanded industries. It is necessary to the future wel-being of this Commonwealth and its peoples that we set our planning commission on an even footing, with equal opportunity to function in the field of competitive enterprise, searching for new industries.

Mr. President, it gives me great pleasure to present to the Senate of Pennsylvania Resolution No. 1 of 1955 and the accompanying Message of the Governor of the Commonwealth, which I wish the Clerk would read, in the first planning to reorganize this State Government of ours.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg.

To the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I transmit herewith Reorganization Plan No. 1, prepared in accordance with the Reorganization Act of 1955, Act No. 8 of the General Assembly, approved by me April 7, providing for the reorganization of agencies and functions of the State government subject to approval or disapproval by the General Assembly. After investigating I have found and hereby declare that the reorganization proposed under Plan No. 1 is necessary to accomplish one or more of of purposes set forth in Section 3 of the Reorganization Act of 1955.

I expect that the improved organizational arrangement provided for in this plan will lead to significantly improved effectiveness of administration and eventually to substantial economies in the operation of the government of this Commonwealth.

During the past twenty years and longer, changes of unparalleled dimension have occurred in the economic life of our Nation and of the world. These changes have vitally affected the prosperity of our Commonwealth and the happiness of our people. The responsibilities of national, State and local government have grown in complexity as the people of our Nation have demanded a higher standard of service, and as the urgings of common humanity have impelled government to exercise all its powers to aid the unfortunate and secure an even justice for all our people. In the economic field we have seen a transformation in the sources of heat and power. Coal which was once, with wood, the exclusive source of fuel energy has been faced with the rivalry of petroleum and natural gas, and coal was not too long ago the basic product of our State's economy. We now approach a period when a new and once undreamed of energy resource has been discovered in the radioactive elements, and it is possible we face transformations in our way of life more remarkable than any which have ever occurred before. In such a period it is vital that the Governor of this Commonwealth, or the titular head of any form of American government, have accessible to him the most farsighted vision and the wisest counsel which can be made available. In many, indeed in most of the more progressive states with which Pennsylvania is in friendly rivalry, such advice has been provided through a State Planning Board or Council, independent of political considerations, unbiased in its relation to the various departments and agencies of the government and free to offer to the Governor without fear or favor advice which may lead him to proper action in the public welfare. He needs such advice in facing a number of public problems which now confront this Commonwealth, problems which I have frequently mentioned in public addresses as of important concern to me:

The effect of the St. Lawrence Seaway on the fortunes of the Port of Philadelphia and the opportunities it may provide to the Port of Erie and all our northwestern counties; the effect of the changing sources of power on the miners of our Commonwealth who have contributed more than those of any other state to provide the fuel energy of our Nation; the effect of the depletion of soils and forests, the pollution of streams and in a word the whole problem of conservation to preserve for our descendants the large heritage which we received from our fathers.

In the affairs of the State government we need wise counsel as to the priority of public improvements to meet the changing conditions of the modern world, and the demand for action to ensure the physical and mental health and the safety and convenience of our people.

For more than twenty years we have had embodied in the structure of our government a State Planning Board, which was established on a statutory basis as an independent administrative agency nineteen years ago, and which, during its independent existence made a substantial contribution toward informing and guiding the actions of our government to our advantage. Almost precisely sixteen years ago this Board was made a departmental administrative board in the newly created Department of Commerce, and by that reduction of its status from an independent board advisory to the Governor to a board dependent on a single State department, it lost at once the power to make an unbiased and authoritative report on the priority of government expenditures for public works, which was one of its most important initial functions. A subordinate agency of one State department cannot with authority or without bias weigh the relative importance of public construction by the numerous government agencies, and if it could do so it would be unable to exercise an advisory function effectively.

In other fields of activity the State Planning Board has been unable to exercise this advisory function, so important to any type of government, because of its involvement in many administrative problems dealing with the provision of housing due to its lately acquired function as administrator of the State Housing and Redevelopment Assistance Law. These administrative details have prevented the State Planning Board, whose members have included some of the State's most distinguished citizens, from performing the functions for which they were appointed. The Planning Board as established by the State Planning Code, as amended, also has possessed from time to time an unduly large number of State government officials, which prevented that Board from providing to the State the unbiased counsel for which it was created.

I, therefore, find that the return of the State Planning Board to an independent status, reporting directly to the Governor, will restore to the State government the advantage of a necessary agency which has been diverted to a less important function, that it will provide your Governor with counsel in meeting the complex and difficult problems of our social and economic life. It will provide him with guidance as to the most essential objects of public expenditures at a time which so many agencies make demands on our State's resources; and though I cannot at this time specify the financial savings which should result from the effectuation of this plan, I am certain they will be substantial.

Equally important to the proper functioning of our plans for the promotion of industrial development in the Commonwealth, is the transfer to the Department of Commerce of functions which have gradually been assigned to the State Planning Board in the field of housing and urban redevelopment and in the stimulation of local planning for community development. As one surveys conditions within the State which require vigorous action by both State and local government, it is obvious that in many of our communities future prosperity with the provision of full employment and the growth of industry is impossible without planning to remove some of the handicaps accumulated in the past, and without providing conditions which will encourage future growth.

Since the Department of Commerce is specifically charged with stimulating the growth of industry and improving the economic situation of those areas in which there is not now full employment, I regard it as essential that this department of our government be given the power to assist in providing those background conditions on which future development inevitably depends. We cannot expect industry to establish itself, or to expand its facilities in communities which do not provide convenient, healthful and progressive facilities for their citizens, nor can we expect that the growth which is essential for local and State prosperity will occur without good housing, adequate highway facilities, the protection of private property through adequate zoning ordinances and surroundings stimulating to the ambitions of young men and women. These results cannot be attained under modern conditions without sound local and regional planning; therefore, as part of this reorganization proposal, I am suggesting and advising that such local and regional assistance responsibilities which have been exercised by the State Planning Board to the detriment of their other important functions, be transferred to the State Department of Commerce where they properly belong.

I, therefore, transmit to you and urge your approval of Reorganization Plan No. 1 submitted to you on this eleventh day of May, 1955.

GEORGE M. LEADER,
Governor.

Dated: May 11, 1955.

Transmitted to the General Assembly, May 11, 1955.

INTERROGATION

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator Dent, according to Act No. 1, as part of the letter of transmittal, the Governor is supposed to set forth the approximate amount of money that will be saved by the adoption of his plan which he sends over.

How much money is supposed to be saved by the adoption of this plan?

Mr. DENT. I cannot tell you that.

Mr. MAHANY. Is it in the letter of transmittal?

Mr. DENT. I only told you what the resolution is. If you want that knowledge, let the Clerk read the letter of transmittal.

Mr. MAHANY. No, if you just look at it—

Mr. DENT. It is in there. What I intended to do, Senator Mahany, I spoke to the Secretary of the Senate and he is going to follow through by having this resolution printed and each Member of the Senate will receive through the mail, during the interim, a copy in order that when we come back on May 23rd, we will all be better acquainted with it. I did not think that the Senators wanted to take the time this morning to read the entire message.

Mr. MAHANY. I thought perhaps you were interested in how much money this would save and that you would at least know that. We will eventually have that information, is that right?

Mr. DENT. Yes, I imagine it is in the message. If the original act requires that information, it is up to the Governor to submit it.

I am answering just like you fellows, being over here.

Mr. MAHANY. Thank you, Senator Dent, your answers to my questions are very enlightening.

SENATE RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 26, REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. STEVENSON, from the Committee on Military Affairs and Aeronautics, to which was referred resolution offered by Messrs. Pechan, Wolfe and McMenamin on February 21, 1955, reported the same without amendment as follows:

ADVOCATING THE BACK TO GOD MOVEMENT

In the Senate, February 21, 1955.

Before our Pilgrim Fathers set foot on American soil they entered into a religious covenant with one another which began, "In the name of God, Amen." These ancestors will stand as eternal sentinels guarding the liberties of our Nation and those principles upon which we have achieved world leadership. Our ancestors were the product of man's alliance with God. There was no other way of beginning for them, and there is no other way of continuing for us.

So true is the axiom that it is not material wealth but moral worth, not broad acres but great principles, not gold but Godly men and the things of God coupled with a steadfast trust in Him, which makes a nation great and keeps it strong. Well lies our Nation's hope in the slogan engraved upon our currency, heard in every inaugural prayer and voiced in the halls of great decisions, "In God We Trust." As long as we trust in God and look to Him for wisdom upon which to build and for Divine guidance in national affairs, we may be assured of increasing honor, prosperity and human happiness.

The future of our Nation, what shall it be? Shall we forget God and lean upon our own understanding? God forbid. Let us hasten to retrace our steps and regain the road which leads to peace, liberty and security. A nation which forgets God is certainly doomed to destruction.

Seeing then that trust in Almighty God was the secret of our forefathers' power and the only basis of all true progress, let us maintain our trust in God, for a Godless order is a menace to life and a peril to our democracy. America was founded by men of great religious convictions, and no one can understand America today without recognition of this basic fact. Unfortunately some are prone to lose sight of these convictions about God, the dignity of man and our democratic processes. Herein lies our greatest National peril; thence the call for spiritual rebirth and a moral rearmament; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives declares the "Back to God" movement to be timely and imperative to our National progress and security, and calls upon our leaders and educators to remove any advocacy or teaching of a breakdown of the spiritual life that has made this the greatest nation in the history of the world. Blessed is that nation whose God is the Lord.

Laid over for one day under the Rules.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 32 REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. STEVENSON, from the Committee on Military Affairs and Aeronautics, to which was referred on March 22, 1955, the following resolution from the House of Representatives reported the same without amendments as follows, viz:

In the House of Representatives, March 1, 1955.
